FEUD IN SAN QUENTIN IS FOLLOWED BY MURDER

TAX ASSOCIATION NOT IN JACK COOK'S GRASP

President Requa Says the Association Has Not Been 'Buffaloed' by the County Clerk's Friends

Oakland, February 15, 1912.
EDITOR TRIBUNE—Your editorial in THE TRIBUNE of Wednesday, February 14th, on "Tax Association and Political Manipulation" is before me.

Inasmuch as there is an entire misconception on your part as to the facts in the case, permit me to state briefly the situation:

So far as it being "common rumor around town that the County Clerk is trying to use the Tax Association," I can only say that this is news to me individually, and to the other officers of the Tax Association. If the County Clerk has any expectation of utilizing the Tax Association as a partisan body to further personal or political ends, I regret the necessity of destroying the pleasing illusion. Primarily the Tax Association is absolutely non-political and non-personal, it aims solely at an analysis of conditions and a statement of facts as they exist. If such an analysis and statement of facts is of benefit to any official the Tax Association certainly has no objection, as it desires rather to praise than to condemn; on the contrary, however, if its analysis and facts are derogatory it certainly will not alter or suppress them because they may be construed as criticizing the conditions existing under some public official.

AIMS FAR BROADER.

The association is emphatically not attempting to decry or discredit the individual; its aims are far broader, as it believes that it is the system that is responsible and that by correcting the system it will have accomplished the desired result of efficient public expenditures. If the individual takes issue with the analysis and figures published by the Tax Association there is always the remedy of a reply and in the end, in any event, it is the people who must decide for themselves.

I am utterly at a loss to understand by what process of reasoning any one can accuse the Tax Association of being "buffaloed." As I understand it, buffaloed is synonymous with stampede, to stampede is to create panic. Certainly I have seen no evidence of panic in the ranks of the Tax Association, although what may be the condition elsewhere is not quite so clear to me.

So far as Mr. Cook having "one set of figures for the Tax Association and another for the Legislature" this is interesting, but not important. The Tax Association will make its own figures and from them draw its own conclusions. It is true that at the present time the Tax Association is investigating the County Clerk's office. To date, however, there have been no figures given to or asked for by the association, nor has any official or employee of the Tax Association been in conference with Mr. Cook on the subject of registration, nor have they been in the County Clerk's office up to date. That these conferences will take place and that the employees of the Tax Association will visit the County Clerk's office is the program, but what investigation has taken place so far has been carried on entirely outside of the County Clerk's office.

PARTISAN AGITATION.

The charge has been made, and apparently well substantiated, that registration has been made an excuse for partisan agitation and solicitation on behalf of certain officials. If true, the practice is vicious and should be stopped. I am not aware, however, that there is anything in the new law which would prevent the Registrar from adopting similar tactics. Legislation on this subject would be necessary and wise to the end that an official clothed with the responsibility of registering the voters should be absolutely estopped from any partisan activities.

In conclusion let me say that the Tax Association at the present time has an open mind on the subject of a Registrar for Alameda county. It may or may not eventually favor the appointment of such an official, but until it has accomplished its investigation and has weighed the evidence, it has no recommendation to make.

Yours truly,
M. L. REQUA, President.

COOK AFTER MORE HELP

The following letter from Senator Shanahan is self-explanatory and shows the underground work of the County Clerk:

Redding, February 10, 1912.

Hon. John W. Stetson, Oakland Bank of Savings Building, Oakland, California.

MY DEAR SENATOR—Our County Clerk informs me that on the new registration law taking effect it will be necessary to have printed and use a new form of blank for registration purposes.

In the meantime, he wishes to know if there is anything in the latest recently made by John P. Cook, County Clerk of your county, that Senate bills Nos. 4, 5, 6, 42 and 43 will be held up by petition under the referendum.

Under date of October 25, 1911, it seems John P. Cook, who now takes exceptions to the new law, wrote to County Clerk Witherow of this county, amongst other things, as follows:

"If, at the coming Special Session of the Legislature, a concerted effort is not made to give the County Clerks extra assistance because of the adoption of woman suffrage, we will be strictly up against it, as it will double the work of the Clerk's office election years."

From his own declaration it would seem that he has no good grounds upon which to invoke the referendum. Kindly let me know whether he is taking any steps in that direction.

Very truly yours,
T. W. H. SHANAHAN.

Frank Shiblowski, 21 years of age.
Ewald Shiblowski, 24.
Philip Sommerling, 24.
Thomas Schultz, 24.
Thomas Jennings (colored) 32.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—The four youthful murderers of Fred Guelow were hanged in the jail today. They were Ewald and Frank Shiblowski brothers, who died together at 10.18 a. m., and Philip Sommerling and Thomas Schultz, who met death at 10.48.

Thomas Jennings, the negro slayer of Clarence Hiller, was the gallows' fifth victim. He was saved for a time by the plea of his lawyers before a federal court that in being forced to make thumb prints his constitutional immunity from having to testify against himself had been violated. The delay was brief, for Jennings was hanged at 12.15. He was the only one of the five who required assistance to mount the scaffold.

THREE MINUTES LATE.
Desperate eleventh hour efforts were made by sympathizers to save the lives of the Guelow slayers. Father Reppin, Polish Catholic priest, declared before Judge McKinley in the superior court that he believed the youths were insane. The priest had visited the murderers and declared they were of unsound minds and subject to hallucinations.

A bailiff from Judge McKinley's court, summoned Jailer Davies to court, but three minutes before the bailiffs arrived the Shiblowskis had been hanged.

Davies refused to obey the summons to appear in the superior court. Instead Chief Deputy Peters telephoned to the judge that two of the men had been hanged and that the execution of the other two would proceed unless a formal writ were issued.

No writ was issued and Sommerling and Schultz followed their companions on the gallows.

Representatives of the state attorneys' office resisted the attempt to stop the executions and told Judge McKinley that the petition alleging insanity, which under the law is a bar

Correspondence of the Iron Workers Said to Reveal Vast Dynamite Plot

Alleged 'Santa Claus' Letter of Tveitmo to McNamara Is Produced

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 16.—New disclosures made in the dynamite conspiracy case through 40,000 letters and telegrams quoted in the indictments as implicating practically all the officials of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers will be the basis, it was declared today on which the government will seek to convict the fifty-four defendants who are charged with committing or abetting in almost 100 explosions.

The correspondence, contained in one of the three indictments and embracing what are termed "unconsummated acts of conspiracy," is held as showing that a vast plot known to and furthered by Frank M. Ryan, president of the iron workers, and to members of the executive board and many business agents, was carried on for six years to destroy the property of steel and iron contractors who employed non-union labor.

It charges all the defendants with being equally guilty as abettors. It also purports to reveal evidence that "jobs" became the accepted term sent through the mail to designate some place that was to be blown up, and that gradually the officials of local unions began to call on the international headquarters in Indianapolis to assist by dynamite and nitroglycerin in increasing the expenses of "open shop" contractors.

ORGANIZED CREW.
Otto E. McManigal, Herbert S. Hockin, second vice-president, and James B. McNamara, became, it is charged, an organized "dynamiting crew."

Letters are included to show regular fees were paid to McNamara and that the cost of doing local "jobs" frequently was discussed in letters.

A letter from Chief A. Tveitmo of the local union in San Francisco to J. J. McNamara in Indianapolis after the Los Angeles Times "disaster," in which he "hoped 'Santa Claus' would be so kind and generous to you with surprises," is quoted to show that the conspiracy spread from Boston to the Pacific Coast.

Four more indictments not yet made public supplement the principal indictment containing the correspondence. These indictments name all of the fifty-four defendants as implicated in the general conspiracy and make these charges:

That on fifty-four counts, all the

"ST. LOUIS FAT" SLAIN BY FRENZIED PRISONER

EDWARD DELAHANTY (upper), the murderer; WILLIAM KAUFMAN (lower left), who was killed, and WILLIAM PETERSON, whom he fatally wounded.

ONE OTHER CONVICT STABBED

Second Man Attacked With File by Vicious Negro Is Dying

Guard Secures Weapon and Captures Murderer Without Trouble

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., Feb. 16.—Edward Delahanty, a negro convict, killed William Kaufman, and fatally stabbed William Peterson, fellow prisoners, whom he attacked with a sharp-pointed file today in the prison yard.

The men had lined up for breakfast and as Peterson passed Delahanty the negro leaped from his place in the line and plunged the file, which he had had concealed under his blouse, into Peterson's side.

Delahanty ran across the road. Kaufman stood in his way and the negro sank the file in his breast. Kaufman ran and his assailant pursued, jabbing him in the back with his weapon until Kaufman fell.

Guard Duffy walked over to where the negro stood at bay, with his back against the wall, still clutching the file.

"You'd better give that thing to me, Ed," he said quietly. "You're apt to get into trouble."

The negro handed over the file and was taken to his cell. Delahanty was sent to San Quentin from Fresno in 1909 for an unnatural crime. He is believed to be insane. Peterson is dying.

PRISON FEUD.

The murder is the result of a bitter prison feud. The prisoners were lined up for the morning march to breakfast.

Attempt to Gain Corner on "Texas Tommy" Fails

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 16.—A ruling was made today by Secretary of State Jordan which will prevent the monopoly of the "Texas Tommy" dance in the State of California. Jordan denied the application of Max Goldsmith and Phil Trease, vaudeville performers who claimed the exclusive use, in the form of a copyright of the "Texas Tommy" for their own amusement. Jordan held that the "Texas Tommy" cannot be copyrighted any more than the ordinary waltz or the homey two-step in making their application to corral all the "Texas Tommys" in the State, Goldsmith and Trease informed Jordan that they were the managers of "a bunch of fools and dicks" and they said they were tired of having every old skit in the vaudeville game using the term "Texas Tommy" which they had invented out of their own fertile brains.

Crushed to Death Between Elevator Floor and Wall

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—As the result of a peculiar accident in the Curtiss apartments 839 Leavenworth street Suet Loan a Chinese laundryman was almost instantly killed today. Suet with another Chinese had gone to apartment 507 on the fifth floor and was on his way down in the freight elevator when the accident occurred. The second Chinese had stepped out of the car and Suet was endeavoring to stop it when someone upstairs pulled the rope. The machine shot upward and the Chinese was crushed between the car and the wall in attempting to jump out. The Chinese was employed at the Wah Hing laundry, 110 Bernard street.

Low Heels? Never! Cry Girls

MILWAUKEE, Feb. 16.—Fourteen girls, aged from 12 to 18, were arrested here today for wearing shoes with heels less than one inch high. The girls were taken to the Milwaukee police station where they were held for a hearing. The girls' parents were notified and the girls were released on their own recognizance.

BEAUTY IS AS BEAUTY DOES, LOOKS AND IS

"Pretty is as pretty does," and that is one thing that THE TRIBUNE Beauty Committee is going to take into consideration when it begins its search for the ten most beautiful women in Oakland society. If you have never stopped to think what constitutes real beauty, prepare your thoughts now. It isn't complexion, nor is it ability to wear a gown right. It is neither grace nor charm, unaffectedness, nor lack of artificiality. It is all of these combined.

"Cherchez la femme," say the French. It means "find the woman," and that is what THE TRIBUNE intends to do—ten of them, in fact. Somewhere in Oakland society circles are ten women who may lay claim to possessing more of the attributes of beauty than do the rest. THE TRIBUNE is to appoint a committee of society members who are to conduct the search and then award the palms. When that search is concluded THE TRIBUNE will print the names and photographs of Oakland's ten most beautiful society women. That's something worth waiting for.

PRISONER SLAYS 'ST. LOUIS FAT'

Convict Runs Amuck in San Quentin and Stabs Two Men.

Just when Delahanty stopped out of the line skirted along the procession of astonished prisoners and rushed upon Peterson who was too terrified to move. Delahanty plunged a file into Peterson's abdomen and as he fell thrust it again into his back, leaving Peterson on the ground. Delahanty then stepped past the prisoners in line until he reached Kaufman. The latter put up a fight, but was no match for his frenzied slayer. A blow on the jaw knocked Kaufman down, and as he fell Delahanty stabbed him in the chest. Kaufman dying within a few minutes.

Delahanty began looking along the line for a third victim, when Guard Duffley rushed upon him. Delahanty and his two victims had been friends until recently, when a bitter quarrel for some unknown reason was started. Threats had been freely made by the men.

PRISON RECORD GOOD.

With the exception of his outrage today, Delahanty's record in the San Quentin has been exceptionally good. During Delahanty's trial the negro was so vicious that it was necessary for the officers to chloroform him in his cell before the trial could be placed on his wrists and the prisoner taken safely into the courtroom.

William Kaufman, alias St. Louis Fat, was serving a thirty-five-year term for the murder of Policeman Eugene Robinson in San Francisco on the night of January 20, 1902.

In company with five other yeggs, Kaufman had returned to San Francisco after failing in an attempt to rob the safe in the office of the Cypress Lawn cemetery near San Mateo. Near Sixteenth and Mission streets they encountered a Japanese and held him up. The man ran and one of the six fired at him, hitting him in the arm.

POLICEMAN KILLED.

Policeman Robinson rushed to the scene and was killed. With Kaufman were Frank Woods, William Henderson, John Courtney, alias Leadville Johnnie, William Kennedy, alias Yellow Kennedy, and Allan, alias "Kid" Goucher, son of former State Senator Goucher of Fresno.

After the shooting of Robinson all the bandits were captured. Kaufman was tried and sentenced to serve 35 years in prison. Woods was executed for the murder of the policeman. It having been determined that he had done the shooting. Henderson turned state's evidence and obtained his freedom, but was later found stabbed in the back on a lonely road outside of Montreal, Canada. Young Goucher was sentenced to serve 25 years, and was only saved from hanging upon an eloquent plea made in court by his aged father. Kennedy had his case dismissed as there was not sufficient evidence against him, but he was later convicted of highway robbery committed in Yolo county and sent to Folsom on a 45-year term.

Courtney was convicted of manslaughter and served a 6-year term. William Peterson, the other convict who was stabbed by Delahanty, was serving a 4-year term for burglary committed in San Francisco.

BLUNDERING ARMY MAN JAILED PENDING INQUIRY

Lieutenant Fields Must Tell U. S. Why He Took Troops Into Mexico

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—The War Department has decided to deal in a drastic manner with Lieutenant Ben W. Fields of the Eighteenth Infantry, who, in command of a squad of American soldiers crossed into Juarez, Mexico, from El Paso, Texas, by mistake yesterday and nearly precipitated an international clash. Fields has been arrested pending investigation.

While the War Department is convinced that the mistake was due to the unfamiliarity of Fields and his men, with the fact that the trolley car they boarded was to cross into Mexican territory as a part of its regular trip, it is desired that this fact be thoroughly impressed on the Mexican officials.

The Mexican government has promised the United States to protect the twelve Americans now at Tlahualil, State of Durango.

At Palomas, on the border line just south of Columbus, N. M., the rebels are reported to be permitting goods of all kinds to come into Mexico at one-half the regular tariff duties.

While conditions in Juarez are said to be favorable to the government, conditions farther west in Chihuahua and especially in the Casas Grandes region, still are unsettled. There is much opposition to the government and the rebels there continue to interfere with the running of trains.

Railway communication between Mexico City and Oaxaca, in the south, has been interrupted.

TAKEN ACROSS LINE.

EL PASO, Feb. 15.—Lieutenant Ben W. Fields, Eighteenth United States Infantry, ordered arrested at Fort Bliss today by the War Department for invading Mexico with armed soldiers of the United States, got into the difficulty yesterday by taking his men across the international line on a street car to save a short walk to the post to which they had been assigned as border guards. Street cars to Juarez from El Paso cross into Mexico from Stanton street and after making a loop in Juarez return to El Paso over the Santa Fe street bridge, three blocks west. Fields was ordered to take his command to the Santa Fe street bridge, for guard duty and instead of leaving the car at the international line and marching west on American soil to the Santa Fe street bridge, he remained aboard with his command under arms, intending to ride around the loop through Mexico, which is the customary route.

RESUME SERVICE.

Street car service to Juarez was resumed today after a suspension of service for twenty-four hours because of the trouble yesterday.

News reached Juarez today that Vasquez captured the town of Guerrero, in Chihuahua, last night. The state legislature of Chihuahua has sent peace commissioners to all parts of the state to endeavor to induce the rebels to return to the ranks of the Moderistas.

Troops with orders to show no mercy have been sent from Cananea into the mountains after the soldiers who multiplied there two nights ago.

The company of state militia, called out last night by State Adjutant General Hutchins, when Mexicans began congregating and denouncing the Mexican consul in El Paso, for permitting the Mexican officials to release the American soldiers so soon after arrest, were not called to arms today. The Mexicans were angered because last week when armed Mexicans were caught in New Mexico by United States troops, they were held prisoners for a week, and when they were taken from the street car in Juarez they were released in a few minutes.

Governor Abram Gonzalez has wired to Juarez asking the resignation of Sancho Mestas elected mayor last week by the moderistas, but Mestas has refused to resign. The governor has wired that he has appointed Emiliano Enriquez of Chihuahua to the position.

REPORT FOUR NEW CASES OF RABIES

Victims of Mad Dogs Under Treatment in San Francisco.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 15.—Four new cases of rabies have been reported to the State Board of Health by the health authorities of San Francisco. The victims are now under treatment in San Francisco. One of these cases is in the case of Dr. Broderick of the San Francisco Board of Health, and the others are being cared for by Lieutenant Colonel Cumm of the Presidio.

Dr. W. F. Snow, secretary of the State Board, in discussing the situation at San Francisco, says the state authorities will urge that prompt action be taken by the city authorities to stamp out the danger from rabies.

WEEPS FOR HER ABSENT SPOUSE

Mrs. Edna S. Eaton Tells Court Why She Is Anxious for a Divorce.

Because her husband, Harry H. Eaton, did not show up to his Christmas dinner at the home of her mother in Los Angeles, Edna S. Eaton, wept and since that time, according to witnesses in her suit for divorce, she has been crying and watching for him to put in an appearance.

The couple formerly resided in Alameda. Eaton was engaged in selling real estate in which pursuit he was successful, but "Money turned his head," said Mrs. Evelyn Webster, a well-known club woman of the English City, in her testimony. "He told me over the phone that he did not want to see her suffer," said Mrs. Webster, referring to the affairs of the couple. "He lets her suffer but he doesn't want to see it."

Eaton is accused of associating too freely with other women to whom he prates his wife, but it is pointed out in the complaint that he does not want to live with her, nevertheless and all efforts of friends to effect a reconciliation have been futile.

Villages Swept Away By Portugal's Floods

Subsidence of Water Shows That $10,000,000 Damage Has Been Done.

LISBON, Feb. 15.—Whole villages and parts of some towns were wrecked by the floods which recently swept Portugal and whose subsidence makes known the fact that damage of $10,000,000 was done by them. Scenes of havoc and desolation are observed for miles along the country roads. Houses and other buildings have collapsed and among their ruins dead cattle lie in thousands. There also have been many human victims. Many persons have been left destitute.

The government has lent 50,000 loaves of bread, 50,000 pounds of fish and 20,000 bottles of wine, and more supplies are being forwarded.

Many of the inhabitants have been found dying of hunger. The cemeteries have in some cases been undermined and corpses are floating in the streets.

to execution, was presented only for delay.

This was denied by counsel for the condemned men, and a wordy altercation occupied the minutes in which the four were being prepared for the gallows.

Judge McKinley declined to permit the petition to be filed until it had been read. The prosecutors insisted that the petition, which was signed by Rev. Replinski was not in accord with the facts.

LIFE SENTENCES.

Two others were engaged in the murder of Fred Guelzow with the four men hanged today. They escaped the sentence of their fellows on account of their age. Both were sent to the penitentiary for life. They were Frank Kita and Leo Suchowski, each 16 years old. The men murdered Guelzow while he was on his way to market with a load of garden truck Guelzow, who had been married a little more than a year, pleaded with his assailants to take his money, but to spare his life for the sake of his wife and month-old baby. They attacked him with clubs, knives and revolvers and beat and hacked him to death.

CONFESSIONS TO CRIME.

Ewald Shilbawski wrote to the widow of his victim last night, asking forgiveness. The letter reads:

"I must die tomorrow for the murder of your husband and the father of your child. I wish to God I had never done it, and I ask you to forgive me, if you can for what I did. I had a fair trial. My lawyer did what he could and the assistant state's attorney treated me fairly. I am guilty and before my death I ask your forgiveness for the great wrong I did. God knows that if I could live I would spend my whole life in trying to do for you and your child what I ought to do."

The crime was committed October 2, 1911. The six were found guilty December 12. The punishment of the two youngest was fixed at life imprisonment and the other four at death. They were to have been hanged December 22, but Governor Deness granted a stay until today.

Jennings was convicted of having murdered Hiller in the latter's home September 10, 1910, on being discovered in the act of committing burglary.

PLAN TO SETTLE GARBAGE DISPUTE

Commissioner Turner Would Have Cities Make Contracts Directly.

Constant controversies which have occurred in the past between Oakland and the cities of Berkeley, Piedmont and Emeryville over the cost of disposing of garbage resulted in Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner initiating a movement this morning to avoid future trouble. The garbage disposal contract must be let next June.

and Turner recommended today that a conference be held by representatives of the four cities to arrange for joint action in the matter.

In the past Oakland has made an individual contract with the firm barging the refuse and garbage to sea, and has then made arrangements to accept garbage from Berkeley, Piedmont and Emeryville. The individual arrangements have been a matter of conflict among the cities, and according to Turner, Oakland has paid more than her pro rata of the total expense.

Turner proposes that a conference be held to have the four municipalities join in advertising for bids for garbage disposal. Each city shall make arrangements to pay the contractor directly, and the three outside cities to pay Oakland a percentage of their expense of handling the garbage over the city wharf.

CANADIANS EASILY DEFEAT SAN MATEO PLAYERS

GOOD TEAM WORK OF VISITORS DOES THE TRICK

Prominent society leaders who are much interested in the polo contests at Burlingame. Distinguished polo players and a scene during a game.

Freebooters Get but One Goal During Hard-Fought Game

SAN MATEO, Feb. 16.—The Canadian polo team defeated the Freebooters yesterday by a final score of 13 to 7 in the second match of the first round for the William H. Crocker cup. The Canadians were mounted on the best ponies seen on the local field. They played in splendid form and scored 14 goals, being penalized for two safeties. The Freebooters, rated as the second team of the San Mateo Club, played with a handicap allowance of six goals and scored but one.

The lineup yesterday was as follows: Canada—No. 1, K. G. Snoden, handicap 2 goals; No. 2, Addison Hone, 4 goals; No. 3, Herbert Noton, 4 goals; back, Major Colin C. Ross, 5 goals. Team handicap, 15 goals. San Mateo Polo Club Freebooters—No. 1, Harry Hastings, 2 goals; No. 2, Will Devereux, 3 goals; No. 3, Edward W. Howard, 3 goals; back, George Garrett, 1 goal. Team handicap, 9 goals.

Final score—Canada, 13; San Mateo Polo Club Freebooters, 7.

Scoring—Canada, 14 goals; Snoden in the first, second, sixth, seventh and eighth chucks. Hone in the second, third, sixth and eighth chucks. No.

ton in the first and two in the second chucker. Ross in the second chucker, two goals. One-half point deducted for two safeties.

Freebooters—One goal, Devereux in the sixth.

Referee, Richard M. Tobin; timer, Elliott McAllister.

Polo enthusiasts expect the game between the Canadians and the first San Mateo team Sunday to be one of the best contests of the season.

PASADENA WITHDRAWS.

There will be no game tomorrow, the Pasadena team having withdrawn from the series. Practice and "cut in" play at Clark's field for all tournament players will be a feature of today.

When the flags of the invaders fluttered in triumph yesterday for the second time, Major Colin C. Ross, the sterling horseman from Canada, showed the same dash and vim manifested by the titled Englishman of the day before. A mighty lesson was to be learned from the game by the followers of the sport of kings when they saw the Canadians in action. The four players worked in complete unison, each man helping the other in perfect action. No better team work has been seen on the local fields.

It is a question among the local enthusiasts what will the Calgary four, which has been together all the season, do to the San Mateo team on Sunday? Large wagers are already being placed on the contest when the two teams meet in a match game in the De Saba cup series.

Playing together for the second time and pitted against a group of experts with the far better mounts, Hillsboro's second team fearlessly plunged into the fray and fought until the last ditch. For every ball that rolled between their goal posts they put more ginger and speed into their play, and in the last periods, with an unredeemable score against them, they played their crack opponents to a standstill.

Will Devereux did some good work when he put the ball between the wickets and saved his crowd from being shut off, and Edward Howard made a few good moves to start the ball down the field, but it was intercepted by the Canadian team. Hastings was burdened with the stupendous task of riding off Major Ross, and he succeeded in giving the major-illie peace, and the Calgary back had no end of difficulty in separating himself from the annoying No. 1.

Garrett made a few effective moves in advancing the ball and less in defending his goal. He did splendid ground-gaining for the Freebooters. Garrett even excelled Major Ross in knocking in the ball from the end of the line. His drives carried nearly to the center of the field.

Considering both the teams from a man-to-man standpoint, the superiority of the Canadians was not especially pronounced, but the collective work of the four Californians was the strength that won the day.

Other changes have been made in the original schedule. The program for Saturday afternoon will be a match between the British four and the Freebooters. This will be the opening game in the De Saba cup series. On Sunday Canada meets the San Mateo Polo Club first team in the second match of this series. This will prove the most interesting and important game of the tournament with the possible exception of the championship match between the north and the south scheduled for Washington's birthday.

The home players received the hearty support of the smart set from the veranda of the clubhouse, who cheered enthusiastically when the single goal was made by the San Mateo players.

DISCRIMINATION IN RATES IS ALLEGED

Railroad Accused of Charging Various Rates From the Different Stations.

Alleged discrimination in freight rates from different points in Oakland made by the Southern Pacific company and excessive charges on transbay shipments on the part of various shippers by water were "brought out at the regular meeting of the manufacturers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce last night. A committee was appointed to take up the first matter with the railroad officials and efforts will be made to effect a reduction in the second case.

George B. Waddell, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce and harbor committee, declared that instances had been brought to his attention where it was claimed the railroad was making varying charges on freight from different stations in Oakland. It was claimed that one rate was charged from Long wharf, another from First and Broadway, another from Meri-roose, and so on in various instances. Waddell declared that when the Southern Pacific was granted a renewal of franchise for its local lines about a year and a half ago one of the provisions of the franchise was that charges on freight should be the same from all parts of Oakland. If this was not being done, the matter was one for examination and correction.

On motion of Waddell, the chairman of the committee, the committee was instructed to appoint a committee of five, including Parsons himself, to investigate the matter. The committee announced was George B. Waddell, chairman; Oliver S. Orlick Jr., J. B. Russell, B. A. Marvin and Fred D. Perrier.

The complaint of excessive charges on transbay shipments was considered in a paper by F. J. Early, chairman of the railroad and transportation committee, read in Early's absence by A. A. Denison.

ALLEGED UNFAIR RATES.

Early declared that the charges on transbay shipments for carloads is the same from all points on the bay, but that on less than carload lots from Oakland and adjacent points manufacturers are forced to pay additional charges to points in Southern California. Portland, Seattle and nearby points. In some cases these trans-bay charges have amounted to nearly as much as the cost of shipment from San Francisco to Portland.

Early explained that the steamship companies claim they cannot afford to absorb the local haul and that to remedy conditions he would suggest that all local manufacturers get together and arrange their shipments either in carload lots or else agree to give their water business to one line which will call on the Oakland side for the cargo.

Following a general discussion of the suggestion the committee secretary was instructed to secure approximate estimates of shipments from local manufacturers in the hope of combining forces to secure the reduction.

A committee to confer with Postmaster Paul Schafer to arrange for a new schedule of delivery of mails in the sections about Twelfth and Pine streets and in the vicinity of Twenty-third avenue was appointed by the chairman. This followed the claim that mail was being delayed both in collection and distribution in those sections, to the detriment of the manufacturers. Oliver S. Orlick Jr., George B. Waddell, M. L. Hadley, Andrew H. Irving and Fred D. Perrier were the committee members. Mayor Frank K. Mott, who was to have addressed the committee members on the effect of harbor improvement on local manufacturing plants, was suddenly called to San Francisco on business at 6 o'clock and was unable to attend.

The committee also referred to general talks on the work of the Alameda County Civic Association, and passed resolutions expressing endorsement of the work.

ROOSEVELT DEALS WITH INDUSTRY

Outlook Editorial Advocates a Commission as Proposed by President Taft.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Theodore Roosevelt has an editorial in the current issue of the Outlook on "A Phase of Industrial Justice." After describing a visit to a model factory and dwelling on certain phases of the relations between employer and employee, Roosevelt says:

"The President in a recent message has recommended the creation by Congress of a commission to look into industrial conditions in this country. It is earnestly to be hoped that Republicans and Democrats, with progressive and wise conservatives, will back up this action. Such a commission could not but do good."

If properly made up, it would approach the matter of industrial relations without prejudice as between employers' associations and labor unions. It would look at the matter from the point of view of the public interest with concern to work for the prevention of unnecessary labor disputes, and for settling those that do arise on a just and permanent basis.

INTEREST WIDESPREAD.

"Surely there is now a widespread and deep public interest in this vital subject, and in an earnest desire to know whether or not our existing mechanism for preventing and settling labor disputes and for helping the cause of social justice as regards both employer and wage worker cannot be improved."

"Undoubtedly the remedy must in large part be found in the action of the several states rather than in the Federal government, and undoubtedly it must also in large part be found in voluntary arrangements between employer and employee and in a higher general recognition of the need of justice and fair dealing. But only an inquiry by the Federal government can be really authoritative and satisfactory and can really cover all the different sides of the matter and throw full light on all the puzzling, baffling, complicated and vitally important questions involved."

No Heartburn, Gas, Dyspepsia or Sourness Five Minutes Later.

Nothing will remain undigested or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapapain occasionally. This powerful digestive and antacid, though as harmless and pleasant as candy, will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you can eat.

But what your stomach craves, without the slightest fear of indigestion, or that you will be bothered with your risings, belching, gas, stomach-ache, heartburn, headache, from stomach, nausea, bad breath, water brash or a feeling like you had swallowed a lump of lead, or other disagreeable miseries. Should you be suffering now from any stomach disorder you can get relief within five minutes.

If you will get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapapain you could always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and your meals would taste good, because you would know there would be no indigestion or sleepless night or headache or stomach misery all the next day; and, besides, you would not need laxatives or liver pills to keep your stomach and bowels clean and fresh.

Pape's Diapapain can be obtained from your druggist, and contains more than sufficient to thoroughly cure the worst case of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. There is nothing better for Gas on the stomach or sour odors from the stomach or to cure a Stomach Headache.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—L. B. Kidwell, who went to the Philippines in 1895 as a volunteer and is now known as the "lumber king" of the islands, arrived here today from the Orient on a visit to his old home in Texas. With him is a young titled Moro named Abdul Fiaz, the son of a powerful datu of Mindanao, and who has forty-nine stepmothers and thirty-three brothers and sisters.

Owing to his friendship with the Moro chief, Kidwell has been able to go unarm into the wildest parts of the island, where he built up his hardwood industry. The financial arrangement between the two is both simple and satisfactory, according to Kidwell, the chief taking "whatever's right."

ALL NEW SCHOOLS IN OAKLAND ARE TO BE BUILT OF CONCRETE

Only Class-A Structures to Be Erected in Oakland by Board of Education

Class "A" school buildings have been recommended by the grounds, buildings and equipment committee of the board of education, who read a report at the regular meeting of the board last evening in the city hall annex, asking that regulation be made upon the commission of public works for plans and specifications for the new structures, which will be erected under the board issue. All the school houses will be re-inforced concrete with steel frames in many of the elementary schools, a provision has been made for kindergarten rooms, which will be large and well equipped.

City Superintendent of Schools J. W. McClendon was granted a leave of absence of 30 days, for the purpose of visiting St. Louis and other cities to inspect buildings in connection with J. J. Donovan, the city architect, and for the purpose of attending the National Association of Superintendents of Schools to be held in St. Louis from February 26 to 29, inclusive.

The following report of regulation was adopted by the board of education and will be presented to the commissioner of public works:

Your committee would recommend that regulation be made upon the commissioner of public works for plans, specifications and estimates for the construction of concrete bleachers for the Washington school athletic field, also for plans, specifications and estimates for the grading of the Thirteenth avenue school lot, also plans, specifications for the grading of the lot on Perry street and Grand avenue.

Your committee would further recommend that the city be given authority to connect the Thirteenth school with the central court of the Frick school with the gutters.

Your committee would further recommend that when an advertisement is inserted in the paper, the furnishing of a temporary school room for the Washington school be in the following resolution:

Resolved, That regulation be, and the same is hereby made upon the commissioner of public works for plans, specifications and estimates for the construction of public works in furnishing such plans and specifications, we herewith set forth the following information:

The location of said building is at Thirteenth and Market streets. (On Market between Thirteenth and Applegate streets.)

The number of class rooms needed in said building is nine regular class rooms, an assembly hall, kindergarten room, a club room, and other rooms as set forth in resolutions heretofore adopted by the board of education and transmitted to the commissioner of public works.

The work should be completed on or before December 1, 1912.

There is available in the fund for this purpose to fully complete said building $100,000.

The size of the class rooms required is 22x30.

The type of buildings required by the board is a two-story class building with reinforced concrete frame.

There should be at least four stairways in said building of a width not less than six feet.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL.

(B) For an addition to the Washington school building on Shattuck avenue between Fifty-ninth and Sixty-first streets. The number of class rooms needed is 12, together with assembly hall, kindergarten and club room, work to be completed January 1, 1913, cost not to exceed $100,000.

NEW STRUCTURE.

(C) For the construction of a one-story building on property owned by the board of education on College avenue, between Pagoda and Shafter avenues. The building is to be for use of grammar and primary children. The number of class rooms needed is 12 together with assembly hall, kindergarten room, club room, buildings will accommodate pupils of the intermediate high schools.

We would recommend further that plans and specifications and estimates for certain changes in the Thirteenth school building be made so that the work may be done during vacation, in order to prepare this building for occupancy as an intermediate high school at the beginning of next term.

Your committee will later make further recommendations in reference to the location of the intermediate high school for the central and northern sections of the city.

Respectfully,
ANNIE FLORENCE BROWN, Chairman

A S KELLY, Chairman of the High School Board of the City of Oakland

Now that intermediate high schools have been established thus relieving the high schools proper of the care of the ninth year pupils, and very materially reducing the number of pupils to be housed in the high school buildings, your high school committee is of the opinion that two high school buildings will be sufficient to accommodate the high school pupils of the entire city.

We are anxious at as early a date as possible to remove the pupils now in the Oakland high school building, as well as the pupils in the Manual Training and Commercial High School building to a building and grounds removed from the business centers of the city.

In the opinion of your committee no better location for this centralized high school is to be found in the city than on the corner of Lake and Merritt. The city now owns sixty acres or more of property known as Lake Shore Park.

After consultation with the city council and with your honorable body in committee, and after learning the opinion of the citizens of Oakland, your committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the city council be, and the same is hereby respectfully requested, if power is vested in the city council to do so, to set aside twenty acres in Lake Shore Park to be used as a site for a public high school, it being understood that the particular location of the school buildings is to be with the approval of the park commission, be it further

NEAR LOCKWOOD SCHOOL.

(F) For the construction of a one-story building on property to be acquired for school purposes adjoining the Lockwood school grounds. The number of class rooms in said building when completed shall be 18. To be completed by January 1, 1913. The amount of money in the fund for the purpose of fully completing said building is $75,000.

(G) For the two-story building to be constructed on property to be purchased by the board of education on Perry street and Grand avenue. Number of class rooms needed is 20, but the number of class rooms to be constructed now is 10, with assembly hall and club rooms. The work should be completed January 1, 1913. The amount of money available for the purpose of fully completing said building is $85,000.

(H) For a two-story building to be constructed on land to be purchased by the board of education at Forty-ninth and Shafter avenue. The work should be completed on or before January 1, 1913. The amount of money in the fund available for the purpose of fully completing this building is $150,000.

PRIMARY SCHOOL.

(I) For the construction of a one-story primary school building on land to be purchased by the board of education at Fifty-fourth and Market streets. Rooms needed, eight. Work completed, January 1, 1913. Money available, $65,000.

(J) For the construction of a two-story school building on property in block 19 of boulevard park. Rooms needed, 12. Work completed, January 1, 1913. Money available, $100,000.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS.

Miss Annie Florence Brown, chairman of the elementary schools committee, submitted the following upon the location of the intermediate high school:

The elementary school committee, in conjunction with other members of the board of education, after considering carefully the location of the intermediate high schools, would recommend that intermediate high schools be located at the following named places:

One in the Thirteenth school building.

One in the new building to be constructed to relieve the Dewey school.

One in the new building to be constructed to be located on the corner of Perry street and Grand avenue, adjoining the Lockwood school site.

One to be located on the school property now occupied by the Manual Training and Commercial High school, located at Twelfth and Market streets.

We would recommend further that steps be taken by the committee on grounds, buildings and equipment, to acquire the necessary locations for the new school buildings to be erected be so arranged that the defendants are guilty as principals in illegal transportation of dynamite.

TVEITMOE'S ALLEGED NOTE TO M'NAMARA PROLUNGED

'Hope Santa Claus Will Be as Kind and Generous to You,' Reads Letter

That on fifty-four counts, McManigal, John J. McNamara, James B. McNamara and Hockin are guilty of illegally transporting dynamite, and all the other defendants are guilty of aiding and abetting them.

GUILT AS PRINCIPALS.

That on sixteen counts, all the defendants are guilty as principals in illegal transportation of nitro-glycerine.

That on sixteen counts, McManigal, J. J. McNamara, James B. McNamara and Hockin are guilty of illegal transportation of nitro-glycerine, and all other defendants are guilty of aiding and abetting them.

The wide scope of the thirty-two indictments, which contain in all 128 counts, is due, it is announced, to the theory of the government that the defendants' alleged guilt is equal, no matter how small an individual's personal activity in the conspiracy may have been. Miller said it had been determined to press all the counts of the indictments against each of the defendants.

The indictment setting out acts of conspiracy, exclusive as it is, in presenting a mass of incriminating correspondence between the defendants," said Miller, "only submits typical acts. If we had chosen the indictment might have been run into many more hundreds of pages. Forty thousand letters were seized in the headquarters of the International Iron Workers' Association, and from them the investigators chose evidence that we consider much more than sufficient to prove our case when used in connection with corroborative evidence of wide effect and varied character. The freedom with which the men put on paper their plans, motives and the working out of their purposes is amazing."

Says Letters Tell of Dynamite Plot

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 16.—Specific charges that the dynamite conspiracy was conducted with knowledge of members of the executive board of the International Association of Ornamental Iron and Structural Iron Workers, including its president, Frank M. Ryan, that the whole conspiracy, extending over years, was recorded on paper, that Orville McManigal, the confessed dynamite maker, shifted shuttle-like over the county on missions of destruction was made by District Attorney Miller.

Miller made these startling accusations in announcing the conspiracy through the mail, known as that covering "unconsummated acts" of the conspiracy. This is to be the basis for the Government prosecution.

LABOR OFFICIALS NAMED.

The indictment charges Ryan, Herbert Hockin of Detroit, Michael J. Young of Boston, John T. Butler of Buffalo and Frank C. Webb of New York with conspiring to transport dynamite through the mail, and names all fifty-four defendants as abettors.

It develops that a regular system of pointing out non-union steel and iron construction jobs was carried on and that the executive members not only contributed money to buy explosives, but assisted in the work which McManigal was to do.

The basis of all the charges lies chiefly in 400 letters and telegrams taken from the iron workers' national headquarters. These letters purport to be from and to Ryan, Hockin, Webb and other officials and business agents.

BEGINS IN SAN FRANCISCO.

The principal charges in the indictment, which is one of thirty-two, are: That from San Francisco in January, 1908, Ryan wrote to J. J. McNamara, Indianapolis, that he had looked over a job in Clinton, Iowa, and described a new bridge there, that was later blown up.

That Edward Clark, at Cincinnati, in February, 1908, wrote to McNamara, saying: "It would be a foolish thing for me to buy any explosives here, where I am well known. I have sized up the whole here and know that it can be done. If this sounds good to you, let me hear right away."

That Webb wrote to McNamara from New York, telling about jobs that were to be blown up in Boston in 1908, and of having talked to Michael J. Young about these jobs, saying:

"Mike wants to see your friend (meaning McManigal) that was in the East once before. Can you get him to come here to do a job for me? Mike will furnish finances. That McNamara wrote to Webb in answer that the Boston and New York jobs were being considered."

BOSTON OPERA HOUSE.

That Webb wrote to McNamara again, describing the new opera house in Boston, telling where derricks could be blown up and when the guards were on and off duty.

That McNamara wrote letters to powder companies in 1908, negotiating for explosives, the negotiations being similar to those which resulted in the blowing up of the Los Angeles Times.

That McNamara wrote to P. J. Morris, St. Louis, in March, 1910, about jobs that were later blown up there.

That Charles Baum, at Minneapolis, wrote McNamara, in April, 1910, that he had taken photographs of non-union jobs that were in course of construction and would send them to him.

That Ryan, from New York, wrote to McNamara in April, 1910:

In regard to the McClintic-Marshall jobs, let Legleitner attend to the jobs in his district, let Butler attend to the jobs at Buffalo and Rochester, Hockin arrange for the Cleveland and Detroit and Cincinnati jobs.

Morris can attend to Mount Vernon. Webb is now at South Bethlehem. Will also send him to Worcester, Mass., and Davenport, Iowa.

Peoria can be handled by Hockin. Chicago is at work on the job there. Ryan will work on a bunch at Chalmers.

JOB AT JERSEY CITY.

I will take up the job at Jersey City with some one in 45. This should be started at once.

That in response, McNamara wrote to Ryan two days later:

I am writing Legleitner, Butler and Hockin about the work of the McClintic-Marshall Company. I have already written Coolidge about the work of above named concern at Chalmers.

That Ryan wrote as follows from New York to McNamara in April, 1910, in regard to the dynamite for the benefit of a union at Peoria:

In regard to the Peoria request, I am of the opinion as you request. What is spent there should be through Hockin. I don't mind expending a reasonable amount in view of all the circumstances.

That Morris wrote as follows to McNamara from St. Louis in May, 1910, regarding the inspection trip he had taken to Mount Vernon, where structures were blown up:

My friend Coleman took me around to show me where the action took place. It seems as though they don't want a recurrence of the affair, as he liked me, and I never knew why he did not trust me. When they talked of buildings or bridges being blown up they always passed me up and explained the dynamite affairs outside of the union who wanted to get the iron workers in bad repute."

Legleitner made the foregoing comments when shown dispatches from Indianapolis dealing with the alleged dynamite conspiracy and mentioning his name. The letter from Frank M. Ryan to J. J. McNamara in April, 1910, saying "let Legleitner attend to the jobs in his district" and the one from McNamara to Ryan stating "I am writing Legleitner about the work of the McClintic-Marshall Company" were pointed out to him.

The prisoner said that if there is any word or any evidence in the correspondence or minutes of the iron workers' executive board tending to implicate him in any plot they are false. He declared he had never been in the "inside" of whatever the government has unearthed cannot include him "because Mac (J. J. McNamara) never trusted me."

"Never Trusted Me," Declares Legleitner

DENVER, Feb. 16.—"They never trusted me. McNamara never trusted me," declared Henry W. Legleitner, former member of the national executive board of the iron workers, under indictment in Indianapolis, charged with being a party to the dynamite conspiracy. "I liked McNamara and he liked me, and I never knew why he did not trust me. When they talked of buildings or bridges being blown up they always passed me up and explained the dynamite affairs outside of the union who wanted to get the iron workers in bad repute."

Legleitner made the foregoing comments when shown dispatches from Indianapolis dealing with the alleged dynamite conspiracy and mentioning his name. The letter from Frank M. Ryan to J. J. McNamara in April, 1910, saying "let Legleitner attend to the jobs in his district" and the one from McNamara to Ryan stating "I am writing Legleitner about the work of the McClintic-Marshall Company" were pointed out to him.

The prisoner said that if there is any word or any evidence in the correspondence or minutes of the iron workers' executive board tending to implicate him in any plot they are false. He declared he had never been in the "inside" of whatever the government has unearthed cannot include him "because Mac (J. J. McNamara) never trusted me."

REFUSED WRIT.

Judge Lewis in the United States District Court here today declined to hear a petition for the issuance of a writ of habeas corpus for Henry W. Legleitner, arrested Tuesday on an indictment returned at Indianapolis.

Simon J. Heller of Mullins & Heller, counsel for the prisoner, had argued that they would try to bring the matter before the Supreme Court of the United States.

Judge Lewis listened only to the first part of the petition. Calling for the writ, he declined to hear more, and the lawyers left the court.

The petition averred that the United States Commissioner who issued the warrant for Legleitner's arrest was without jurisdiction.

Legleitner is charged with illegally transporting 46 pounds of dynamite from Bellefontaine, Ohio, to Indianapolis.

HORNER TO AID IN EQUALIZING ALL ASSESSMENTS

Civic Association Committee and City and County Official to Work.

CONFERENCE IS HELD AND MATTER DISCUSSED

Result Reported at Meeting; Action Is to Be Taken at Once.

Efforts to bring about a more equitable adjustment of the assessed valuations of property in Oakland and Alameda county will be made by a special committee of the Alameda County Civic Association, working in conjunction with the city and county assessors. This was decided upon at a special conference yesterday afternoon in County Assessor Horner's office between Deputy County Assessor Thomas Robinson and a committee of the Civic Association headed by Chairman Charles F. Gorman.

Furnished with skeleton maps of the district of Oakland lying between First and Twenty-second streets and Lake Merritt and Market street and a special clerk from the County Assessor's office, the special committee of volunteer appraisers will canvass the territory and place cash values on the property in question which will be submitted to the assessors for their consideration in making out their new valuations. This work will be done between now and March 1, when the final closing of valuations begins.

At the conference yesterday there were present besides Robinson and Gorman the following from the Civic Association: Hugh Craig, E. W. Woodward, R. E. Jackson, Judge John C. Coburn of Emeryville, John Gamble, F. C. Watson and W. A. Wann. Judge Coburn called the informal meeting to order and R. A. Jackson was chosen chairman of the afternoon.

Members of the committee then presented to Robinson, who represented Horner, who was unable on account of illness to be present, instances which had been found by the association where assessed valuations of property were unequal. Among these were the assessment of forty acres of waterfront property valued at $175,000, $200,000, the Harvey tract of twenty acres in the annexed district, recently offered to the county as a hospital site at $60,000, which is selling at $1800 an acre, but is assessed at only $68, and others.

In reply Deputy Robinson stated that efforts should be made to adjust the discrepancies in valuations and offered all aid at the command of the committee affecting a reform. Robinson was then requested by motion of the committee to furnish to the downtown section, where discrepancies on the corner of each block will be noted. These valuations will act only as a guide to the assessors in the making of their own valuations. This Robinson agreed to do. Full details of the afternoon's meeting which was held behind closed doors, was reported to the Civic Association, which held its regular meeting last night at the Chamber of Commerce. Fully 75 delegates from the downtown business section, the Chamber of Commerce and the committee and the Merchants' Exchange attended the meeting and applauded the report. Gorman announced that in addition to the members of the association, representatives of the city would act as volunteer appraisers. Arthur H. Bred, W. J. Layman, E. B. Bull and W. Ernst would serve on the committee for the present.

SEEK REPRESENTATIVE MEN.

In bringing the work down town the committee will take up all the lying districts in the same fashion, and for that work wants representative men to act as appraisers in the balance of Oakland, the annexed district, San Leandro and Hayward, and other sections of the county.

"We do not aim to set valuations absolutely for the assessors," said Gorman, "but only to aid them in reaching an equitable figure. We have called and will call to the attention of the assessors any discrepancies existing. Next year our organization will do the same thing, if there is anything to criticise."

"And as a result of this readjustment we believe that the discrepancy of approximately $12,000,000 between the city and county assessments can be done away with; that the assessed valuation of property in the county can be raised at least $50,000,000 and that within two years the tax rate can be reduced from $3.28 to the $2 mark."

Following its regular meeting last night a number of representatives of the association went to the meeting of the Manufacturers' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and addressed that committee. Among the speakers were Chairman Charles F. Gorman, W. A. Wann, J. W. Phillips, R. E. Huttmann, Judge John Coburn of Emeryville and Fred C. Shaw.

On motion of M. L. Hadley, secretary of the Manufacturers' committee, seconded by J. W. Phillips, the committee then passed the following resolution endorsing the work of the association:

"Resolved, That the members of the Manufacturers' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce pledge themselves to co-operate with the Alameda County Civic Association in the noble work that they are doing in bringing about a readjustment of the tax valuation in the city of Oakland and county of Alameda."

Manura of 410 Eddy street, at Post and Hyde streets, early this morning. The two Japanese had just passed the corner when the robbers approached, compelled them to throw up their hands, walked them to the wall and ransacked their pockets, taking from Manoto a watch and $10 and from Manura a watch and $2. ## GERMS IN HER SYSTEM

Every Woman Should Read
This Advice and the Generous
Offer That Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test. There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frequently in discharges from mucous membranes. Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered.

Reall Muc-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailment of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucous discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, soothes, heals and strengthens the mucous tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Reall Muc-Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefited, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Reall Muc-Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Reall Remedies only at The Owl Drug Co. stores in Oakland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Sacramento, Portland, Seattle, Spokane.

ABOLISH POLL TAX, PLEA OF PETITION

Initiative Measure Under Way; to Be Submitted to State in November.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 15.—Following is the text of an initiative measure to be submitted to the voters of the state to secure the abolition of the poll tax.

A resolution proposing to the people of the state of California, an amendment to the constitution of the state, amending section 12 of article 13 of said constitution so as to abolish poll taxes in the state of California. The people of the state of California do enact as follows:

"That section 12 of article 13 of the constitution of the state of California is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 12 (article 13 of the constitution): There shall not hereafter be levied and collected a poll tax in this state. This provision shall not be construed as to interfere with the right of the legislature to authorize the several counties throughout the state or the governing bodies thereof to provide, when being requisite for a head tax for public roads and hospital purposes.

Petitions are to be circulated in every county in the state to secure a place on the ballot for this amendment, which is proposed by a Sacramento newspaper.

Washington Dodge, assessor of San Francisco, will assume charge of the petition and direct the fight for the adoption of the amendment in that county.

County Assessors Edward W. Hopkins of Los Angeles, C. F. Horner of Alameda, M. M. Moulton of San Diego and Ed. J. Kay of Sacramento county will perform similar services in their respective localities.

D. D. Sullivan, president of the State Federation of Labor, will cause the petitions to be circulated by every affiliated labor union in California.

GREATER FORCE AT WORK IN AMERICA

Rev. Reginald Campbell Says
Old World Is Moving Much Slower.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—Rev. Reginald J. Campbell, who has returned from an extended visit to the United States, in an address yesterday said that one could not fail to be impressed by the mightiness of forces at work there contrasted to those of the old world. It is this mightiness, he said, that gives one confidence that the great civilization struggling to birth will be greater than history has yet had to show.

"The people in America are generally much more hospitable than in England, and it is especially so in the Western states," he said. "I liked best the quality of my audience in New England and on the Pacific coast."

"Nine years ago the black race gave rise to the overshadowing problem of American democracy. Now the yellow race, at least in the west, is causing much more apprehension. One is also confronted by the influx of heterogeneous European elements. Will the marvelous American public school system be equal to the occasion? Will the body politic digest this mass of humanity, or will it be itself digested?"

"Political corruption in America, in my opinion, is due largely to the influx of peoples from European countries, where true freedom is not understood."

CHURCH MAY DROP 'OBEY' FROM RITES

Refusal of Suffragettes to Use
It Leads to Spirited Dispute.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—As a result of the recent suffragette wedding, at which the bride refused to promise to obey her husband, there is a prospect that the word "obey" will be stricken from the Church of England marriage service. The matter came up at a meeting of the lower house of convocation of the province of Canterbury yesterday and a resolution was adopted recommending that the scriptural form of the last exhortation in the marriage ceremony be revised.

The Dean of Canterbury objected strenuously to altering what he termed an exhortation which contains passages from St. Peter and St. Paul. The Dean of Winchester, however, insisted on the recommendation and it was adopted with slight modification. The house also agreed to revise the exhortation by inserting a clause to assist with blessing upon these two persons. May both be fruitful in the procreation of children. It is proposed to substitute the words, "Blessed be the union of these two persons, the heritage and gift of children."

LOOKED LIKE MAN-IN- PICTURE, BUT WASN'T

FRESNO, Feb. 15.—"Yes, that looks like my picture all right, but I'm not the man wanted," said William Davis, a respected rancher of Sanger, as he gazed on the likeness of his double, "Bill" Davis, wanted by the Santa Ana authorities on a charge of grand larceny. William Davis was arrested after the picture of his double, Bill Davis, had been received by the local authorities and submitted to many friends of the rancher for identification. As a consequence William Davis spent the night in jail without knowing what he was in for. He succeeded in establishing his identity and now threatens to sue local authorities for false imprisonment. The remarkable coincidence is unparalleled in the history of the county.

WIFE'S LETTER PROVES UNDOING OF BURGLAR

FRESNO, Feb. 15.—A letter addressed to his wife, which he dropped in the room he was looting was the bit of circumstantial evidence that convicted Joe Gaetano of first degree burglary today in the superior court. Sentence will be passed next week.

Gaetano several weeks ago returned to his former lodging-house and secured a letter written to his wife. The next morning the letter was found in a room which had been robbed of a suit case and an alarm clock. The letter was traced back to Gaetano and it was learned that he had sold the clock for 30 cents.

SACRED MOUNTAIN TAKEN FROM MOROS

Details of Remarkable Campaign Are Received in Philippine Mails.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Philippine mails just received at the War Department contain the first detailed accounts of what is regarded as a remarkable campaign conducted by General Pershing against the Salu Mangs, the day before Christmas with the capture of the sacred mountain—Bud Dajo—believed by the superstitious natives to be impregnable against attack by the white man. General Pershing's policy of showing the Moros the futility of resistance by massing around them overwhelming numbers of troops, the loss of life was reduced to a minimum. The Americans had only two women and not more than a dozen Moros were killed.

The purpose of the campaign was to disarm the Moros and induce them to settle down to peaceful industry. Most of the tribesmen heeded the order to surrender their arms, but a number of the wildest spirits gathered on Mount Dajo and announced their purpose to resist to the end. General Pershing surrounded the hill and in a campaign of four days forced the surrender. Many of the Moros were found armed with modern weapons, including automatic revolvers. They were placed in a military prison at Calarian, where they will be kept until their reformation is assured.

HAWLEY'S PROTEGE TOOK DOCUMENTS

Chauffeur Declares That Miss
Cameron Seized Papers in Raid.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Henry Peterson, former chauffeur for Edwin Hawley, admitted yesterday that Miss Margaret Cameron, who has been known variously as the niece, housekeeper and favored protégée of the railroad wizard, has in her possession documents which she believes entitle her to a substantial part of the $35,000,000 estate. These documents Miss Cameron secured from among Hawley's private papers during a flying visit she paid to Hawley's country place at Babylon, L. I., recently.

It is known that the taking of these papers and the subsequent disappearance of the young woman, following a wordy quarrel with William P. Hawley and Walter Crandall, temporarily has halted the work of the administrators of the estate.

Peterson, the chauffeur, together with John Williams, superintendent of the Babylon estate, are said to have been witnesses to the document which was drawn up and signed last September.

Since Hawley's death Peterson has been living in a handsomely furnished apartment in the Roosevelt Hotel, West Sixty-ninth street. Seemingly he has been in affluent circumstances.

According to Peterson, the servants at Babylon still regard Miss Cameron as their mistress, having been told that she expects to take possession of the place very soon.

RABIES QUARANTINE BARS FOX HUNTS

Meadowbrook Club Suffers as a Result of Government Order.

MINNEOLA, L. I., Feb. 15.—The Meadowbrook fox hunts, which have been a feature of New York society's spring season for years, will not be held this year. The state department of agriculture has served notice on the Meadowbrook officials that a strict quarantine must be maintained for six months against all dogs in the various townships over which the hunts are run. The state department of agriculture has attacked both dogs and horses, is the reason for the quarantine.

The quarantine will prove a great hardship to the Meadowbrook Club, which had prepared a schedule of hunts for the fox and drag hounds, which would have attracted lovers of the sport from all parts of the country.

DRUMMER NARROWLY ESCAPES PROSECUTION

PORTLAND, Feb. 15.—Although released of a statutory offense by Judge May Wood, a 17-year-old department store girl, A. J. Garrard of San Francisco, a traveling salesman, has temporarily escaped trial for a felony, the charge having been dismissed on a writ by Deputy District Attorney Hennessey and Garrard's bondsmen relieved.

When this fact developed Chief Deputy District Attorney Hennessey was deeply offended and censured Hennessey bitterly. He says he will ask for another indictment. Hennessey says that Miss Wood did not want to prosecute. Garrard was indicted on December 10 and furnished $5000 bonds.

AUTO TURNS TURTLE; FOUR ARE INJURED

VISALIA, Feb. 15.—In an attempt to keep from striking a horse which was standing in the middle of the road, Edward Yarnall of Lindsay steered his automobile into an embankment and the car turned turtle, pinning him and Mrs. Frank Ostrander under the machine. Mrs. Yarnall and Judge Ostrander, the other occupants of the machine, were thrown out of the car and slightly injured.

Yarnall suffered a dislocated shoulder and Mrs. Ostrander's back was badly wrenched.

BACK BROKEN; MAY LIVE.

SANTA CRUZ, Feb. 15.—Manuel C. Bettemourt, a special policeman, survived an injury was operated upon by four surgeons yesterday for a broken back. Bettemourt had been injured in a street car accident. The surgeons removed shattered pieces of vertebrae which were pressing against the spinal cord. They say the patient's permanent recovery is probable.

Are you the man who goes into the suit store, wanders about looking at suits strung up like a lot of hams—looks at a lot of tags, and shudders at the price of the most presentable garment? ## NOTED GLOBE TROTTER DIES IN SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, Feb. 15.—Colonel W. B. Hayes of New York, a globe trotter and millionaire, died at the age of 61 in this city Tuesday after an illness of only a few days. Death was caused by old age.

Colonel Hayes, who is said to be known in every city of importance on the globe, came here three weeks ago in search of health. He registered with a companion at the St. James.

A successful effort to keep the fact of his death a secret until the relatives in New York could be notified was made by the hotel authorities, but the fact became public last night when Public Administrator Barney E. Kell made application for special letters of administration for the estate, which is said to consist of over a million dollars in stocks and bonds.

$29,000,000 WAS FINE; NOW IT'S DIVIDEND

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—It may be merely "happenstance," or it may be that the masters of Standard Oil figured it out deliberately, but the fact remains that the $29,000,000 stock dividend to be distributed soon to stockholders in the Standard Oil Company of Indiana is virtually the same in amount as the fine imposed on that concern a few years ago by Judge Landis.

Landis' fine did not "stick," but the stock dividend will probably be paid without a hitch. So instead of having $29,000,000 taken away from them by order of the court, stockholders in the Standard Oil of Indiana will have that amount of stock presented to them.

The directors are reported to have announced that the increase in the share of capital from $1,000,000 to $30,000,000 will take the form of a stock dividend. Soon after the increase is authorized at a meeting of the executive committee and officers of the Old Trails Road Association here today.

The Scheme to Destroy Lakeside Park.

The proposal to take twenty acres of Lakeside Park—Adams Point—for a school site is the most amazing suggestion ever presented to the citizens of Oakland. The very audacity of the proposed vandalism is staggering. It is simply that the school department shall be permitted to appropriate the whole of Lakeside Park for a school site and playground—for there would no longer be any park if the heart of the tract be cut out and used as a site for a group of school buildings.

In plain terms, the Board of Education asks that Lakeside Park be turned over to the school department. It is not surprising to find the finger of Superintendent McClymonds working in this scheme. It would naturally itch to get into a project of this kind. For many months Mr. McClymonds has been working himself into the belief that the school board would just have to have Lakeside Park as a site for a new high school. He has been edging up to this proposition ever since the school bond election. At last he has announced—with proper expressions of regret—that there is no help for it, Lakeside Park must be taken for a school site.

A public outrage would be committed if the audacious demand of the Board of Education should be acceded to. It does not deserve respectful consideration. It should be turned down with an emphasis that no such preposterous demand will be made in future. On this proposition we are confident the voice of the community will be expressed in positive and emphatic terms of disapproval.

Considerably more than half a million dollars has been expended in the purchase and improvement of Lakeside Park. The creation of a public pleasure ground on the shores of Lake Merritt has for many years been a cherished hope of the people of this city. Just as this hope is about to be realized, the Board of Education steps forward and coolly says, "We want the park for a school-house site; go somewhere else and create a new park, and give us this incomparable beauty spot." It is much easier to find a site for school buildings than it is to find a large tract, conveniently located, adapted for park purposes. Where can we find another Lake Merritt? What is to become of the plan to make the lake the center of park improvement on a broad and comprehensive scale? Locating a group of school buildings on Adams Point would absorb the larger part of the central park tract and destroy the whole scheme of adornment which has cost so much money and so many hours of thought and endeavor. It is not to be thought of.

The Lakeside Park property was purchased with the proceeds of a bond sale authorized for the specific purposes by a vote of the people. When the bonds were voted the people knew precisely what was to be done with the money, the land that was to be purchased with it, and the use to which the land was to be devoted. The land was purchased and dedicated as a park by direct authorization of three-fourths of the citizens.

Moreover, hundreds of men have bought lots on the hill opposite the park and erected residences thereon because a park had been located on the shore of the lake. They invested their money and built their homes on the assurance that the park dedication was a finality. A wrong would be done them if the park should now be diverted from its original purpose.

We cannot believe that Mayor Mott, who has spent years of earnest labor on the project to create a park around Lake Merritt, will countenance this outrageous scheme. It is stated that Commissioners Turner, Anderson and Baccus are committed to the proposition. We cannot believe it. When were they committed and to whom? It would be extraordinary, indeed, if a majority of the Board of Commissioners should commit themselves privately to a scheme of this character before it had been publicly broached and discussed. We give them credit for a higher regard for the public interest and sense of public duty than to believe they would enter into a surreptitious agreement of this kind.

But in any case, public indignation should not fail to express itself in this matter. Let public sentiment speak now, and not manifest itself in resentment after the wrong has been done.

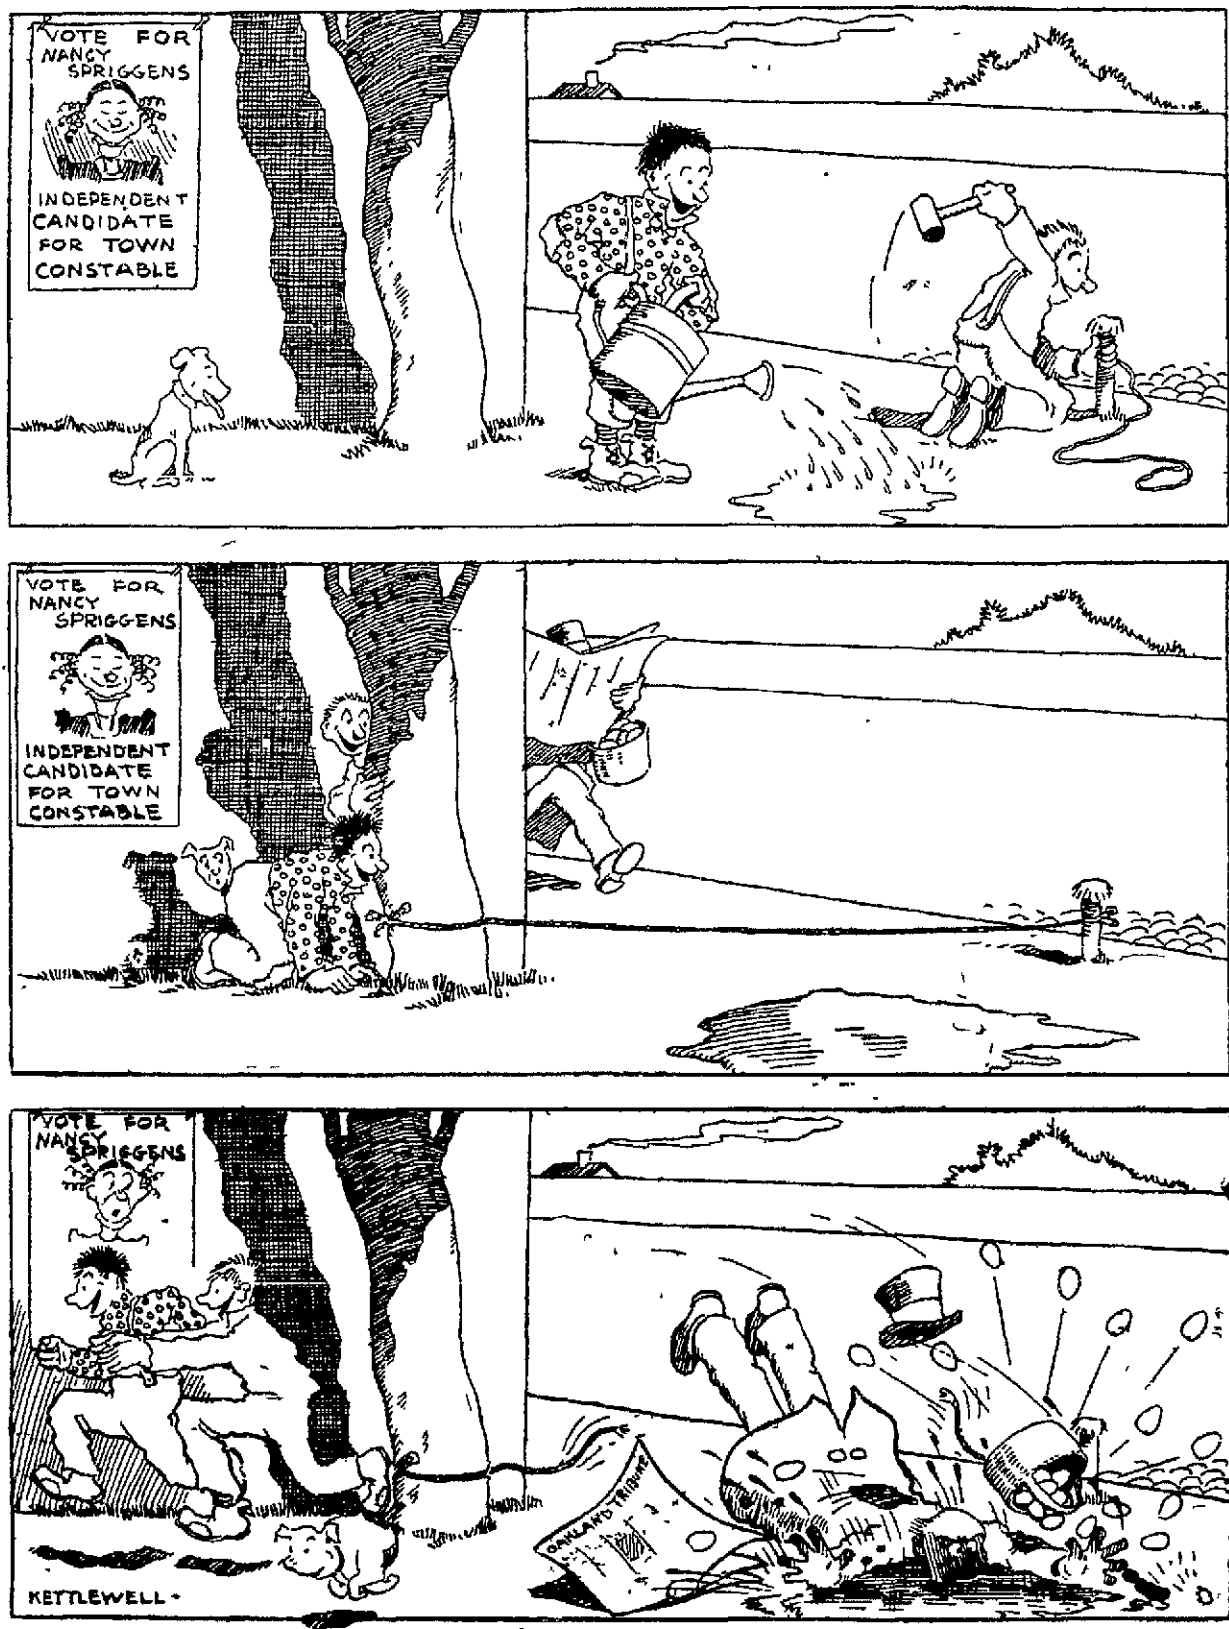

Forty years ago General Phil Sheridan advised the Texans to raise less h—ll and more cotton. Last year they raised so much cotton that they are raising h—ll about the price. They turned out 4,000,000 bales and are complaining that the price is too low. They are advising each other to plant less land to cotton, but there is a shrewd suspicion that the fellows who are loudest in giving this advice have the least intention of taking it themselves. Even at nine cents cotton is a very profitable crop; moreover, it is a ready money crop, and the storekeeper who sells goods on credit wants the farmers to plant plenty of cotton. There may be some difficulty about disposing of other products, but cotton always commands ready sale for cash.

The Chicago Tribune has changed its mind about the third term since old Joe Medill passed away. In 1880 the Tribune was fiercely opposed to giving Grant a third term; it had opposed him in 1872, and it professed to believe that it would be akin to treason to violate the precedent created by Washington, and subsequently endorsed by Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson. Now the Chicago Tribune is frantically urging Theodore Roosevelt to become a third term candidate. It dismisses the third term tradition with a sneer, and sees in the "Caesarism" it once professed to abhor the only salvation of the country.

Canal Tolls for Domestic Shipping.

Why should England or any foreign power object to vessels engaged in the American coasting trade going through the Panama canal toll free? Foreign ships cannot engage in the American coasting trade, consequently the remission of tolls to American coasters cannot affect foreign shipping. Allowing American coasting vessels to go through toll free would have the effect of keeping freight charges between Atlantic and Pacific ports at a low level and would be a great advantage to domestic commerce; at the same time, it would not discriminate against foreign shipping. Perhaps the transcontinental railways have a reason for objecting to remitting tolls to American coasters, but foreign ship owners have no valid reason for objecting. As the Canadian transcontinental roads do a large amount of overland freighting for the Northern Pacific ports in the United States, they naturally object to letting American coasters pass through the canal toll-free, but they have no right to be considered in the matter. They wish to participate in the domestic trade of the United States, and want the canal tolls adjusted to enable them to do so. The regulation of traffic by the Interstate Commerce Commission—from which they are exempt—gives them at present an advantage over American freight carriers, and now they demand that canal tolls shall be regulated to give them a still further advantage. It would be extraordinary if a strictly American enterprise should be so managed as to give an advantage to foreign railways.

GENUINE JOY

A Worthy Practical Benefaction.

Rich men have their uses after all. Many of them acquire wealth in questionable ways, but it frequently occurs that these same men expend large sums to benefit society. Of course the good deeds do not justify the bad, but what a man does that is worthy has the same claim to praise that the evil he does has to condemnation.

Some of the men most conspicuous for gaining great fortunes by methods which offend the moral sense are equally conspicuous for their benefactions and for their efforts to make the world happier and better. An example in point is the million-dollar hotel now being built in New York for the accommodation of sailors. John D. Rockefeller and J. Pierpont Morgan have furnished large sums to this enterprise, which is being conducted by the Seamen's Church Institute, the purpose being to provide sailors with wholesome, sanitary and attractive quarters at a minimum of cost. Neatly furnished rooms will be provided at a cost of from ten to fifty cents a night. There will be a restaurant providing meals at cost, lounging and reading rooms, gymnasium, shower baths, concert hall and chapel. The different grades of seamen will be in different parts of the hotel, as on shipboard.

The hotel is not a charity proposition. Its patrons will pay for what they get, but the aim is to give them all that can be supplied for the money, and to furnish high-class moral accommodations for men of the sea. No doubt the success of the Mills hotels prompted this enterprise, for the Mills hotels have proved a financial success as well as a great boon to workingmen and poor strangers in the city. For a dollar a day a man can live well at a Mills hotel. In building the palatial sailors' hotel, the aim is to give seamen equal accommodations at the same price, or even at a lower cost, free from evil associations and the liquor bane. The place will be self-supporting and will have no eleemosynary flavor about it.

Woodrow Wilson declined an invitation to deliver a political address in Ohio on the ground that it would be a breach of professional courtesy. Perhaps political courtesy is the better term. As Governor Harmon is a candidate for the Presidential nomination, Governor Wilson thinks it would be unbecoming for him, a rival candidate, to invade Governor Harmon's state. This is in accordance with the comity of politics, but is altogether different from Senator La Follette's way. La Follette had no scruples about going into Taft's home state to open his campaign. That his scheme to obtain the insurgent or progressive endorsement in Ohio failed was no fault of his. Roosevelt's followers balked his design, and in doing so treated him shabbily after inviting him into the State. Had he respected the established usage of politics, he would not have been turned down by his proessed friends. Dr. Wilson does not propose to risk any such contretemps. Not only is Judson Harmon very strong with the Buckeye Democracy, but the kickers headed by former Congressman John J. Lenz are for Champ Clark. Wilson could gain nothing by going to Ohio, and he might suffer the experience of La Follette. He has wisely stayed out.

Pointed Paragraphs

If Ananias were living today he would have lots of competition. A political dark horse is a nightmare to the others in the race. Everyone comes to him who waits—including all kinds of hard luck. The young man who asks a girl for a kiss wastes a lot of valuable time. It is awfully hard for an honest man to look at a woman who is a fake. Men are not everything, but men are everything worth while represents money.

Bachelor Musings

It's easier to be crazy than to think everybody else is. It takes lots of people a lifetime to make up their mind to speak the truth. As soon as a man finds he can never make anything come out the way he wants it he becomes an optimist so as not to feel too bad about it. The first thing the devil does after morning is to make sure there is a lot of finny displayed in the shop windows the world over.—New York Press.

SERMONS IN BRIEF

A CALL TO RIGHTEOUSNESS.

(By Rev. J. A. B. FRY, Pastor Epworth Methodist Church, Berkeley.)

"And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross and take away thy tin, and I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counselors as at the beginning, afterward thou shalt be called the city of righteousness, the faithful city. Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness."—Isaiah 1, 25-27.

This is no haphazard, indeterminate world. There are certain great laws that pertain in it and the only security is in knowing and obeying them. People know that violation of the laws of hygiene will entail suffering. They know that ignoring the laws of the state may bring them into trouble. But many have not come to realize how certain are the mighty moral laws. They forget the teachings of history. When a city or nation fails to live up to the teachings of righteousness it must come to ruin. The prophet exhortates his people for opposing the widow, the orphan, the laborer, for not obeying God's laws, which demand justice and right treatment of all. So-called charity is not enough. A system of social conditions that makes paupers can't save its conscience by making contributions to churches and charity organizations. The monopoly that destroys the opportunity of another is wrong and God writes his sentence of death on it. The man who seeks to get the money of the employed without giving in turn the highest wages his business man will allow, is guilty before God and man. The person who seeks to advance his own interest at the cost of another must come to punishment. The workings of justice seem slow, but they are sure.

HOW THEY LOOKED

Lincoln, with his six-foot-four, is the tallest president on record. Washington was a six-footer, and Jackson was an inch over six feet. The shortest president, Madison, was but five-feet-four. Washington was slender for his height.

Polk is on record as the leanest and Cleveland as the stoutest president, though John Adams was noticeably corpulent.

The first four presidents were beardless. John Quincy Adams brought in side whiskers, and Van Buren, coming after the smooth-faced Jackson, repeated the Adams pattern. Clean-shaven Presidents followed in a line until Lincoln, in his second term, grew his sparse crop of whiskers.

The next beard in the White House was that of Grant, full and short trimmed. It was succeeded by the long, luxuriant whiskers of Hayes, then came the lesser full beard of Garfield, followed by the elegant Burnside of Chester Alan Arthur.

With Benjamin Harrison's curly tipped beard the day of whiskered Presidents closed again. McKinley's face was smooth. For Cleveland, Roosevelt and Taft the mustache has sufficed. As yet there has been no President without a mustache.

terly bald, though the heads of the two Adamses, of Van Buren, of Garfield and of Cleveland in his second term were touched with baldness.

Polk wore his hair long, reaching over his ears.

Arthur is credited with having been the best dresser of all the Presidents. John Adams, a man of middle height, represented the John Bull type among Presidents. He was corpulent, vigorous, a little vain and loquacious.

After Jefferson, erect, agile, tall and strong, came little Madison, neat, quiet and refined, but with plenty of courage. Monroe was tall, blue of eye and light of complexion. John Quincy Adams was a student, broad of brow, firm of mouth and good humored with his friends.

Jackson was slender and graceful, long faced and thin faced, with a high, narrow forehead and long sandy hair falling almost to his blue eyes—eyes that, became deep and brilliant when he was aroused.

Martin Van Buren, polished, punctilious and always self-possessed, was found by critics a little too elegant and too fond of good living and good company.

Warm-hearted Franklin Pierce has been declared the most popular of the Presidents personally.

LOSES HIS MEMORY WHEN HE FAINTS

But Doesn't Know Who He Is.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—An unknown man, apparently a well educated Englishman, is attracting the attention of the entire medical fraternity of Los Angeles because of his inability to remember who he is.

Known only as "J. W.," the initials on his watch, the man is a patient at a local hospital, where numerous tests have failed to aid him in remembering his name. While looking through a directory yesterday in the hope that he might discover his name, the patient suddenly announced that his wife's first name was Edith, but he could not recall his own, his place of residence or any occurrences since Thursday afternoon when he fainted on the street in a fashionable residence district.

Their Banquet.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Despite the stringent laws laid down for proper attire by the 500 tailors who are holding their national convention here this week, it was figured out today that there were some fifty-three styles of evening clothes worn at the association's banquet last night. The gray tuxedo, which the convention declared was the very latest thing, was not in evidence, but several dinner coats of raven hue were shown without a flush of embarrassment.

Clarence A. McCarthy, the president of the organization, declared in his after-dinner address that the New York man was the best-dressed in the world.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—President Taft has directed that former Lieutenant Chas. P. Burt of Atlanta, Ga., be reinstated in the navy and promoted to the rank of Lieutenant-Commander. Burt, who was discharged several months ago for failure to pass his examination for promotion, was re-examined by a special board of officers at the request of Senator Bacon of Georgia. He was found to possess the necessary "mental, moral and physical qualifications." In 1909 a board held Burt deficient in navigation and unfit for promotion because of a "moral deficiency," about $400 of debts, which since have been paid.

DEMOCRATS ARE CALLED HELPLESS

Bourbon Party in New York "Roasted" as Mere Job Chasers.

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 16.—The Democratic party in New York state, came in for a thorough drubbing here last night in an address by Frank L. Young, Republican leader in the legislature, before the annual dinner of the Republican county organization. "The Democratic party in New York state stands today absolutely discredited for its complete failure to give the state the administration which our citizens demand," he said. "On all subjects of importance there has been a condition of doubt and hesitation which has been, and is, discouraging and demoralizing. Democratic leaders are helplessly ineffective. Not knowing what to do, they have done nothing except to find jobs. They have created every new office conceivable in the state, and have made it a rule to give it to a Democrat. The result is a surplus of surplus water in the state conservative department."

DIES AS RESULT OF EATING PORK SAUSAGE

Blackwood, Wis.—"My baby's face got kind of pimply because of the eczema and it was so bad that it itched and he couldn't sleep except a little while at a time. It made her face raw and red. My baby had this eczema for about two months and I used different remedies with no benefit until I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment which I did and she is perfectly cured now through their aid. I had had as bad an itch on my hand and I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it was cured in a few days. (Cuticura Soap and Ointment) Mrs. W. J. Thomas, Nov. 5, 1911.

I had had as bad an itch on my hand and I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment and it was cured in a few days. (Cuticura Soap and Ointment) Mrs. W. J. Thomas, Nov. 5, 1911.

RICH OIL FIELD IN SAN JOAQUIN

Land Withdrawn From Entry in Southern End of the Valley.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—A productive new oil field is believed to exist in the southern end of the San Joaquin valley in California and the government has withdrawn from entry the public lands in this region. These facts were made public in a preliminary report by Robert Anderson, who made a reconnaissance in the region for the United States Geological Survey.

Anderson concludes, from the brief examination made, that two or more areas, situated near the foothills at the south end of the valley, offer favorable conditions for the accumulation of oil.

"Around the foothill belt that fringes the valley," he says, "the possible oil-bearing formations are not continuous and the structural conditions are not uniform, so that if oil is to be found at all it must be sought in areas where the pressure of oil-bearing strata and the occurrence of favorable geological structure make the accumulation of oil possible."

SCHOOL BOARD RESTRAINED FROM BUYING SITES

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 16.—Opposition to the city board of education and the methods employed by that body in the matter of selecting and buying land for school house purposes took form yesterday when Superior Judge Post issued a temporary restraining order forbidding the city board of education from purchasing or arranging to purchase any land for school houses or school house, and from drawing any money available for such purpose, and directing the board, as a whole and as individuals, to appear in the Superior Court the 24th day of February and show cause why the injunction should not be made permanent.

CROSSES CONTINENT TO SAVE HER SON

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 16.—Love for a son who had not been seen for five years brought Mrs. Nora Gundler from Buckport, Me., to Spokane to plead for his release from jail, where he was held on a charge of forgery. Frank Hardy, the son, attempted to pass a bad check, but was not successful. He was arrested and his mother heard of his plight. She arrived here several days ago and, without letting her son know, pleaded successfully with the prosecuting attorney for his release. Hardy was escorted to a railroad station last night and there met his mother, who had desired not to see him in jail. The meeting was a happy one, and mother and son departed for their home in Maine.

TO INVESTIGATE FREAR CHARGES

Honolulu Governor to Have a Hearing Before the New Official Is Appointed.

HONOLULU, Feb. 16.—J. Kahalo Kalanianoe, delegate to Congress, said today that he had received assurances from the administration that the charges preferred against Governor Walter F. Frear would be investigated fully before the appointment of a successor or the reappointment of the governor, whose term is about to expire.

In reply to a cable invitation from Secretary of the Interior Fisher to answer the charges against him, Governor Frear said today that the trouble was the outcome of factional differences among the Republicans of the territory and accused Delegate Kalanianoe of having tried to organize an anti-white party. Kalanianoe denied this.

TOWN PAYS $62 TO TEACH EACH CHILD

MACE, Idaho, Feb. 16.—Investigation by school authorities reveals the fact that this town pays for teaching each pupil, each year, more than $62. This is believed to be more than the cost in any other town in the county. The high cost of living, forcing the payment of high salaries to teachers, is the cause. Burke, near here, pays $57; Warner $48, and Mullan $47.

She Had Consumption Was Dying; Now Well

Eckman's Alternative is being used with success in the treatment of tuberculosis. Persons who have taken it improved, gained weight, and were able to do their work. If you are interested in many more about it, we will put you in touch with some who are now well. You can investigate and judge for yourself. Read of Mrs. Govett's recovery.

"Gentlemen: Thinking that you could short history of the remarkable cure of my mother-in-law (Mrs. Anna Govett) who had been suffering from consumption for many years, I am writing you. About September 10, 1908, she was taken with Catarrhal Pneumonia, and gradually grew weaker. Night sweats were so bad that it was necessary to change her clothing every two or three hours. Her weight decreased and got so bad that every day expected that she would not live much longer. The trained nurse (Miss Anna Trimmer) informed me that she had tuberculosis and nothing could be done for her. In January, when Rev. Wm. Berg of St. Michael's Church, at Shoreville, Ind., prepared for her death, he recommended that I get some Eckman's Alternative. I did not want to give her any more relief. I then requested the attending physician to give her diagnosis and he informed me that she had Consumption. I was told to take any medicine I pleased, but I thought that it was useless to try the Alternative, he replied that 'No medicine could cure her, but Eckman's Alternative might.' So I immediately sent Rev. Wm. Berg to send for a bottle. Practically without hope for recovery, I insisted that she try the Alternative, which she did. At the end of the first week a treatment, she got so bad that she refused to take any more of it, but the doctor advised her to keep on taking it, as it was the only thing that might help her. And soon began to improve. Now, she works as hard as ever, weighs twenty pounds heavier than she ever did before she took sick, and is in good health. She frankly says she owes her life and health to Eckman's Alternative. We keep it at hand at all times and recommend it highly."

(Signed affidavit) "JOS. GRIMMER," Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by The Owl Drug Co. and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases and full particulars. Write to Eckman's Alternative, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

FRESNO TO BE TAPPED BY NEW RAILROAD

STOCKTON, Feb. 16.—The Tidewater and Southern Transit company has filed articles of incorporation for the purpose of constructing 112 miles of railroad extending from Turlock to Fresno, and touching with branch lines various points in San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Merced and Fresno counties. Of the total amount the sum of $18,200 has been subscribed. Stockton is the principal place of business of the incorporation, and following are the stockholders: Karl C. Brueck, J. C. ### WOMEN IN THE NEWS

HE'S 80; FEELS 40 AND WEDS PRETTY GIRL OF 20 SUMMERS

"Look Out, or Mamma and I Will Elope," Warns the Bridegroom's Son.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Edward B. Alsop, 80, a wealthy retired steel merchant, and Miss Effie Hill, 20, of Washington, D. C., were married yesterday in Trinity church by the Rev. Dr. Sutton.

Following a wedding dinner at a downtown restaurant at which the bridegroom's two sons, "Hal" and "Ned" Alsop, Harvard students, and his nephew, Reese Alsop of Brooklyn, were guests, the bride returned to her mother, Mrs. John J. Hill, at the Hotel Latham, and the bridegroom adjourned to the Waldorf-Astoria, where he continued the wedding festivities until late into the night. In this he was assisted by his two sons and a host of friends and others who were unable to resist the contagion of the high spirits of the happy bridegroom, the burden of whose many remarks was:

"They claim I am 80. Don't you believe it. I am only 40, for a man is only as old as he feels. We are going to make the grandest little team that ever came down the matrimonial homestretch. My boys agree with me that this is a momentous occasion for their dad."

"She's a peach, too," interjected the son Ned, and looking at his father, added:

"If you don't look out, Pop, mamma and I will elope."

"I don't think there is any danger of that," retorted the old gentleman, laughing. "For I am still able to lick you, eh? What?"

Alsop has a handsome residence in Washington, D. C., where he lives most of the time and has a large estate on the shores of Lake Toba, N. C.

Mme. Eames Sails

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Mme. Emma Eames de Gogorza, and her husband, Emilio de Gogorza, sailed yesterday for La Provence, where she is going to Italy for her health, having been compelled, upon the advice of her physician, to cancel her concert tour in this country.

For the last week the great singer has been laid up, with the grip in her apartment at the Ritz Carlton. She has had two previous serious attacks of the grip, and her physician, Dr. George W. Jacoby, urged her to give up her singing engagements and take a complete rest for two or three months.

Bride of Lieutenant

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Miss Marion Allison, daughter of Colonel James M. Allison, U. S. A., and granddaughter of the late Judge J. W. Walker of Portland, Ore., was married to Lieutenant Jacob Earl Fickel, U. S. A., in the Church of St. Cornelius the Centurion, on Governor's Island, yesterday. Among the bride's ornaments was a diamond necklace, the gift of her godmother, Mrs. J. L. Fowler, of California.

Woman Is Sued

SEATTLE, Feb. 16.—Claiming that his services in preparing for her a $1,000,000 worth of property left her by her late husband in Salt Lake City during litigation that arose over the will, he received but $400 attorneys' fees, O. J. Neider of Salt Lake City this afternoon brought suit in the Kings superior court against Mrs. A. L. Walker of this city for $48,000, the balance of $50,000 which he asked as his fee.

Mrs. Walker, who came into public notice when she made a mad race to Seattle from Salt Lake City in an automobile filled with valuable securities, refused this evening to discuss the case.

She Was Angry

TACOMA, Feb. 16.—Miss Esther Allstrom, pure food inspector, yesterday notified one dealer at the public market to keep his meat covered. He failed to do so. The inspector marched and came back with a hand saw. Marching behind the counter, she saved off two legs of the meat table, dumped the meat on the floor and marched off in triumph.

"I told him to cover the meat," then I told him. If he didn't obey I'd saw up his table, and he laughed at me, saying that I could not even drive a nail; so I showed him."

Wires Her Advice

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Mme. Masterlinck, wife of Maurice Masterlinck, who recently finished her operatic engagement in Boston, was a passenger on La Provence yesterday. Before sailing Mme. Masterlinck called her husband at New York, a long list of groceries and other provisions that he should purchase before her arrival. From time to time she has cabled the poet and philosopher her advice on housekeeping.

Weds Rich Chinese

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 16.—Lee Song Quay, a pretty 18-year-old Chinese girl from San Francisco, was united in marriage yesterday to Fung Yow Sing, a nephew of Seld Back, Portland's richest Chinese.

Seld Back Jr. imparted the information that Lee Song Quay had "plenty" chance to marry at San Francisco, but came to Portland because she likes my cousin best.

Wed in South

SAN JOSE, Feb. 16.—William Wallace Gordon, son of a retired San Jose millionaire, and Miss Beatrice Hazel Mack, well known socially, were married in Los Angeles, according to an announcement here when the young couple passed through here on their honeymoon trip. They were to stop a few days in San Francisco.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary G. Gordon of Los Angeles and General William G. Gordon of San Jose, who figured several years ago in one of the most sensational divorce suits ever tried in this country, in which a woman figured. General Gordon now lives a retired life at his country place near Berkeley. Young Gordon is well known in club circles.

The bride is the daughter of a real estate man who was formerly connected as a partner in the real estate firm of T. S. Montgomery & Son. He is now in business in Los Angeles. She is a prominent musician and a pianist of note.

MIDDLEMAN GETS THE BIG PROIT

Indianapolis Mayor Says New York Is Tough Place for Consumer.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Mayor "Lew" Shank of Indianapolis, who is in New York investigating the high cost of living problem, is convinced that the metropolis is almost hopelessly in the grip of the middleman.

"I would rather live a day in Indianapolis than a whole year in this city," is his conclusion after making the rounds of the wholesale markets and comparing the prices paid by the wholesale markets and comparing the prices paid by consumers with the prices realized by producers.

"I don't pretend to understand conditions here," declared the mayor after studying the question along the water front for an hour or two, "but here's a question that ought to get the house wife thinking. If a baker, buying direct, can get eggs for 15 cents a dozen, how many middlemen must be taken care of to make the same grade of eggs cost the house wife 44 cents?"

"The best idea I have for bringing about a change in things here is a scheme for having the price the producer gets, marked on every article. With potatoes, for instance, the sack would carry a tag showing that the farmer got 69 cents a bushel for them. The consumer probably would be asked to pay $2 or more. He would soon get to keeping track of such matters and then the thing would work itself out."

OIL INTERESTS ARE ORDERED TO COURT

Standard - Rockefeller Officials to Explain Reorganization Methods.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 16.—Attorneys and representatives of the Standard Oil Rockefeller interests, who attended the annual meeting of the Waters-Pierce Oil company have been served, it was announced today with subpoenas to appear Monday and give depositions regarding the methods employed by the Rockefeller interests in the reorganization of the Standard Oil company. It is believed the taking of depositions will serve to stay the mandamus proceedings before the circuit court tomorrow.

The mandamus proceedings are to force H. Clay Pierce and his associates, owners of the minority stock in the Waters-Pierce Oil company, to certify the votes of the Rockefeller stockholders in the Standard Oil company. Pierce contends that the votes should not be counted and in a statement his lawyers charged that the Standard Oil company was attempting to perpetuate a trust.

HOFFMAN, the great German physiologist, summarized the means of reaching great age as follows: "Avoid excess in everything. Respect old habits, even bad ones. Breathe pure air. Adapt your food to your temperament. Shun medicines and doctors. Keep a quiet conscience, a gay heart, and a contented mind."

Buffon was the first one in France to raise the question of the extreme limit of age. It was his opinion that men who became adult at 16 should live to six times that age, or 96 years.

According to Florense, the moment of a complete development may be recognized by the fact of the junction of the bones with their apophyses. This junction takes place in horses at the age of five years. The horse does not live beyond 25 years. With the ox at four years, he does not live over 20. With the cat at 18 months. That animal rarely lives over 10 years.

The same physiologist admits that human life may be exceptionally prolonged under certain conditions of comfort, sobriety, freedom from care, regularity of habits, and observance of the rules of hygiene. He terminates his interesting study with the aphorism: "Man kills himself rather than dies."

There is no doubt but the American people race through life at too rapid a pace. They do not stop long enough to let their machinery cool. They take two or three problems in their brain machinery at one time. One at a time would be treated better and more thoroughly, and would naturally leave no exhausting effects.

Temperance, sobriety, and regularity of habits are of the first importance.

Living by rule and avoiding extremes and excesses may appear irksome at first, but custom soon turns it into habit. Thus it secures happiness and comfort as well as length of days. The wheels of life will run long in grooves, but soon wear out over rough, irregular roads. Habits, whether good or bad, are easily formed when one is young. When one gets on in years it is difficult (and oftentimes dangerous) to upset them. Therefore, you see how necessary it is to form good habits in early life.

It is easier to get into good habits than bad ones. The comfort of knowing that you are doing right is restful to nerves and brain, which makes for longevity.

temper, if he has one, is going a long stride toward long life. Much anger wears out the vital organs, especially the heart and the brain. We hear a person say: "He was red with anger," or "She was white with rage." Both anger and rage cause a temporary suspension of the prime mover of circulation itself. A person who can afford to be angry must be rich in physical power.

Fear is the most dangerous foe we have to fight. It is the root of all of our troubles. If we can allay the fear of anything, that foe is conquered. The fear of losing any one or anything is the first seed planted in its grave. Drive out the fear of age and there will be no age.

The habit of faith should be the first one for us to adopt. Then cheerfulness should follow. People who live to be old are always cheerful and have great faith in their Creator. They are almost childlike in their simplicity. That is a wonderful rule to follow.

"Live and let live" is an old quotation which should be hung in a prominent place in every home. Give everyone his or her chance. Your conscience will be free and there will be little wear to that important brain cell.

Vitality will last as long as the fear of age keeps out of the mind. Beauty will last as long as vitality lasts. Vitality of thought and action should last 60 to 80 years in the life of every perfectly healthy man or woman.

Remember: The fear of disaster is disastrous.

STATE MAY NOT PUT ABE RUEF ON THE STAND

MAY NOT BE ASKED TO TESTIFY

Abe Ruef and District Attorney Have Not Reached an Agreement

Fickert in Doubt About Calling Former Political Boss as a Witness

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 15.—Abraham Ruef, whose dickering for a week with District Attorney Fickert has been fruitless, may be returned to San Quentin without testifying in the trial of Eugene S. Schmitz, which begins next Monday. While the former boss looks hopefully and eagerly forward to the dismissal of the scores of indictments against him and the paving of the way for his parole from the state prison, he may be doomed to a bitter disappointment and the District Attorney is now considering seriously a proposition of putting in the evidence against Schmitz without calling upon Ruef.

Fickert was interviewed this morning with reference to his attitude and the statement of one of his assistants that the indictments against Ruef would not be dismissed until after he testified on the ground that he might say that he knew nothing against San Francisco's former Mayor.

INDICTMENTS STILL HOID. "I can say to you that the indictments will not be dismissed before Monday," declared Fickert, "and it is not our present intention to ask for their dismissal. The case will go on and we may call Ruef or we may not." "Does that mean that Ruef may not be used as a witness after being brought over from San Quentin for the purpose?" he was asked.

"That is exactly the situation. All that I can tell you now is that we may call him, but we also may not." Ruef himself was not brought in from the county jail today for the first time in a week.

"I have maintained my position and have refused to talk the case over with the District Attorney in any way," he asserted. "I don't know what will be done, but I have made up my mind that I would say nothing with all these indictments pending against me."

Attorney Bert Schlesinger is representing Ruef in connection with the present situation, and he is of the belief that the former boss is not being treated fairly.

WHAT RUEF DEMANDS. "All that we are asking for Ruef," he protested, "is the same fair and impartial treatment as was accorded the other defendants. He asks that the indictments against him, all of them, be dismissed, as he has a right to ask, and as was done in the case of the other defendants. Under the peculiar circumstances of his own case, I think that this is but a most natural request. They talk of a 'cunning, wily boss.' If Ruef were that kind of a man he would be walking the streets free today instead of being in the situation that he is in."

Neither Judge Dunne nor Judge Lawlor has been consulted relative to the dismissal of the indictments, as such cannot be done save in open court, and it is understood that when the true bills are quashed, Abraham Ruef will refuse to speak and for this reason District Attorney Fickert, as he himself says, may or may not call him during the trial of Eugene S. Schmitz.

WOMAN SCORES EDUCATION BOARD

Miss Brown Declares Favoritism Is Shown Principals and Teachers.

The Criticism Follows Heated Discussion Over Site of New High School.

"Everybody's business is nobody's business," declared Miss Annie Florence Brown, the members of that body at its meeting last evening. She denounced the manner in which the committee meetings of the board were held and also insinuated that favoritism was shown certain principals and teachers who had "pull" with various directors.

"The members of the board do not hold proper committee meetings," said Miss Brown. "The committees are not doing their work properly. Matters are not being investigated thoroughly by the committees to whom the things are referred. It is almost impossible to get the various committees together and do proper committee work. It results in a very unbusinesslike way of carrying on the departments. This condition of affairs will never be remedied until persons are put on the board of Education who can devote time to personal investigation."

"The Board of Education is too large. There should be three committees to conduct the board work, just the same as in the city government. They should use all their time in the educational work of the city. They should be experts either along business or educational lines. A private institution could never carry on its business if it was conducted in the manner in which the Board of Education is attempting to direct the charge entrusted to it."

HEATED DISCUSSION. Miss Brown's speech was followed by a heated discussion upon the proposed site for the Manual Training and Commercial high school by Assemblyman F. M. Smith, who stated that the old Board of Education favored E. Nineteenth street and the new Board for the Manual Training and Commercial High school and that the citizens of East Oakland would never have voted for the school bonds if the Board of Education had not proposed to build the school there.

"The residents of that section of the city were given to understand that the Manual Training and Commercial High school was to be erected on East Nineteenth street," stated Smith. "It is not fair to the people of that territory to erect it elsewhere after they were given the information that the board would have that institution in East Oakland. It's just like getting money under false promises."

McCLYMONT'S OBJECTION. With that remark Superintendent McClymont rose to his feet and stood by the side of Smith looking into his face, saying with an emphatic denial that he had never made the assertion that the Manual Training and Commercial High school would be erected on that spot.

"You have misunderstood me," said McClymont. "I made no such statement. I said that a high school would be built there, but I never said that it would be the Manual Training and Commercial High school."

"You did specify the Manual Training and Commercial High school," interrupted Smith. "A number of the members of the old Board of Education also proposed the East Oakland site for the school."

"The members of the old board could not act for the present board," said Calvin M. Orr, president of the Board of Education. "No member of this board ever told you that the East Nineteenth street lot would be selected for that school building."

During the bond election we never could have had such a school as this as to where the school would be built," said F. B. Cook, chairman of the grounds, buildings and equipment committee. "It would not have been wise as we wanted the school bonds to carry and they surely would have been defeated if we told the people that we did not intend to build the school upon certain property. We will certainly use all the land to the best advantage and will do the best thing for the people of this city."

DEPARTMENT OF WAR PUT UNDER FIRE

Congress to Take Hand in the Ainsworth-Wood Controversy.

Chief of Staff's Career Will Be Investigated by House Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—A Congressional investigation of the war department, probably by a House committee, appeared today to be a certain outcome of the Ainsworth-Wood line and staff controversy, which resulted yesterday in the relief of Adjutant General Fred C. Ainsworth from office. Friends of General Ainsworth in the House were said to be preparing the resolution of investigation and it was declared an effort would be made to have the scope of the inquiry so widened as to include the administration of affairs in Cuba at the time when General Leonard Wood, now chief of staff of the army, was military governor.

Judge Advocate General Crowder was busy today preparing the charges on which General Ainsworth will be tried by court-martial. Meantime the House of Representatives took a hand in war department affairs by adopting an amendment to the army appropriation bill consolidating the duties of chief of staff, adjutant general and inspector general into a single bureau of the general staff. The chief of staff would be the supreme and directing head, with the adjutant general and inspector general members of the staff.

Representative Berger of Wisconsin, socialist, attacked the policy of an extensive standing army, declaring it to be a "standing preparation for war." He insisted the United States needed no standing army for purposes of defense.

"Texas alone," he said, "could whip Mexico in case of an attack. If the Canadians should try to attack us I believe the United States could handle them."

Berger declared the government was spending $400,000,000 for militarism and less than half that sum for the entire public school system.

SOCIETY OPPOSES PEACE TREATIES

Nation-Wide Campaign Begun Against Proposed Abolition of War.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—A nation-wide campaign against the international peace propaganda is the plan of the American Peace Society, just launched here. In a statement announcing the organization of the society, its secretary denounced the proposed arbitration treaties as a "substantial step in the rear for Great Britain and the United States and a menace to American free institutions," and added: "If a tribunal with judicial powers can be thus established, tribunals with legislative powers can also be established. If legislative and executive tribunals are established by treaty it only remains to be seen how easily they will be used to enforce the legislative enactment and judicial decrees."

Ghost Breaks Up This Happy Home

MACON, Ga., Feb. 15.—A ghost figured as co-respondent in divorce proceedings here today, when George W. Mann told the court that his young wife had been haunted by the shade of her former husband, to whom she had made a promise that after his death she would never marry. She became so despondent from remorse, Mann said, that he consented to a separation and then applied for divorce. He was given his divorce.

TELLS STORY OF HIGH FINANCE

Woman on Way From Reno to New York to Pay Back $500,000.

Declares She Was Once Wife of Bank Wrecker Rothschild.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—A woman registered at a hotel here as Mrs. Theresa K. Batten of New York, said today that she was possessed of $500,000 which had been stolen and that she was on her way from Reno, Nev., to New York to pay the money back to those from whom it had been taken. Mrs. Batten said she once had been the wife of David Rothschild, president and confessed wrecker of two New York banking institutions, and who died in Sing Sing in 1907. She said it was her purpose to restore the half million dollars to the depositors of these institutions, the Federal Bank of New York and the Globe Security Company.

The liabilities were upward of $2,000,000, she said, and that her understanding was that the receivers already had paid 80 cents on the dollar. Mrs. Batten said she learned last November that she had been left the money. She is under the care of a physician and nurse.

FOLLOWED HUSBAND.

RENO, Nev., Feb. 15.—Mrs. Theresa K. Batten came into the limelight in Reno two weeks ago, when she appeared here on the day following the arrival of her husband, Eugene Batten, for the avowed purpose of contesting his suit for divorce. The day following her arrival her husband secured a search warrant authorizing a search of her belongings for valuable papers, which Batten claimed she had stolen from him. Batten's suit for divorce was filed a few days later and a reconciliation was effected. It proved of short duration, as she had her husband haled into the Police Court on a charge of assault and battery. Later she put up bail for his release and the case was dropped after which Mr. and Mrs. Batten left Reno.

BLAMES FIRST SPOUSE FOR BIGAMY

Wife of Capitalist-Engineer Declares She Was Threatened With Death.

Anonymous Letter Reveals a Plot and Confession to Horace Parshall.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A remarkable sequel has developed to the marriage between Horace Field Parshall of Milford, N. Y., the American capitalist-engineer, who is chairman of the Central London Tube railway, and Mrs. Deborah Jeffreys, which took place at El Tham registry office on May 8 last year.

The woman was arraigned yesterday at the Bow street police court on a charge of bigamy. She is very attractive and appeared before the magistrate in a handsome costume. In answer to the charges she said: "I'm deeply sorry for what I have done. I would not have done it if my husband had not made me."

In a formal statement made to the Court she declared that she first met Parshall in January, 1911, when she was presented as a widow. He afterward proposed marriage to her. Her husband, Herbert H. Jeffreys, from whom she was separated, urged her to marry Parshall for his money and threatened to kill her if she refused. Parshall after she was married, she said.

Parshall afterward received an anonymous letter in which his supposed wife confessed what she had done. The marriage was annulled by the high court.

$40,000,000 TO BE SPENT ON RIVER

Government to Improve the Channel of East River for Great Length.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Plans just completed by Colonel W. W. Black of the engineer corps of the United States army, will call upon congress to spend $40,000,000 for the improvement of the East river channel between New York city and Long Island shore. The plans recommend the removal of all the rocks and reefs in the channel and the widening and deepening of the river at Little Hell Gate and the Harlem Kills, where the current now is so swift as to be a peril to navigation. A report on the necessity for the proposed improvement by the New York Commerce Commission, says:

"Only very recently the port of New York reached the proud position of the leading port of the world. The competition of Hamburg, Havre and Liverpool is close and keen, and unless New York makes ample provision it will lose this place."

BEGIN CAMPAIGN FOR RECALL OF DIRECTORS Citizens' Committee Adopts Resolutions Against Officials Opposed to Bunker

BERKELEY, Feb. 16.—The way was paved for recall proceedings against School Directors Mrs. Elinor Carlisle, Herman I. Stern and John A. Wilson, by the adoption last night of a report by a citizens committee originally numbering fifteen. Vincent Surr, a Socialist, declined to serve on the committee and was not present at the meeting. The preliminary plans for recall proceedings are being made today. Part of the work, that of preparing a statement to be contained in a recall petition, is in charge of former City Attorney B. D. M. Greene.

Director Stern, Carlisle and Wilson refused to appear before the citizens' committee appointed by Fred G. Athearn at its meeting last night at the Shattuck hotel. After hearing the statements of Director Roy J. Young, who made a report of developments to date, the committee drew up and passed resolutions expressing its convictions, opening the way for recall proceedings against the three directors and adjourned subject to the call of Chairman Charles B. Marks.

DIRECTORS' PROTEST
The three anti-Bunker directors sent word to the committee through Prof. William Carey Jones and Rev. E. L. Parsons that they still contended that the committee was not an official body and was not authorized to summon them to appear and give explanations.

The committee therefore resolved to make a report of the matter to the board of directors. The sub-committee appointed by Chairman Marks consisting of Frank N. Cornish, Rev. A. M. Smith and Prof. William Carey Jones made their report, and after some discussion and additions by the members, the report was unanimously passed. It follows:

The committee of fifteen appointed to investigate the proposed action of the board of education of this city whereby the services of Superintendent Frank F. Bunker Young were terminated at the end of the present school year, makes the following public report:

Our invitation to the several members of the board to meet with us to discuss the situation and state the grounds on which, in their opinion, the action of the board rested, has been accepted by only two members of the board. The three members composing the majority of the board who proposed to discontinue the services of Mr. Bunker have positively refused to recognize the committee or to discuss the situation with it. The compliance of President W. C. Morgan and Director J. J. Young, who appear at our meeting, their ready and frank statements of facts in reply to questions, and the receipt of correspondence between Mr. Morgan and Mr. Bunker, together with a copy of Mr. Bunker's speech to the mass meeting of Feb. 9, are the only basis in the finding of the following facts:

1. Except for individual differences of opinion as to the propriety of teachers, and in case of suspension of one, which is clearly right in the course he pursued, no act nor any series of petty annoyances of the board as the basis of its judgment that Mr. Bunker should be discontinued.

2. There is no evidence of any objection to the superintendent as objectionable to any member of the board and as a basis for the judgment that he should be discontinued.

3. No member of the board has at any time accused Mr. Bunker of any act of dishonesty or immorality.

4. No member of the board has at any time called in question Mr. Bunker's character.

5. No member of the board opposed Mr. Bunker's continuance because of any stated opposition to the financial or educational policy of the department, both of which were inaugurated by Mr. Bunker.

6. The action whereby Mr. Bunker's services should be terminated was taken in a meeting of the committee of the whole of the board of education, and Mr. Bunker was allowed no opportunity to meet with the board to discuss the proposed action.

7. It was stated by one member of the board that Mr. Bunker was arbitrary in the performance of his duties, and was unpopular in the department, but no fact was adduced in support of this opinion.

8. It was stated by one member of the board that they were elected to office on the issue of the continuance of Mr. Bunker in office, and that they considered themselves pledged to their party to refuse to renew his contract.

9. It was stated by one member of the board appearing before this body that in his opinion the most obvious condition leading to the action of the board was the incompatibility existing between the superintendent and one director, who seemed to desire the removal of Mr. Bunker, and who tried to exercise power and influence in the department quite beyond his conception of the scope of those of a director's duty and quite in opposition to the scope of duties and management vested in the superintendent by the charter. This opinion was concurred in by the other director appearing before this committee. This attitude of long standing on the part of one director, presented the opportunity for two others who considered themselves bound by duty to discontinue his services, to bring about the desired end.

his administration have been and are bringing about a superior educational condition hitherto unattainable. Whereas, We take pride in the fact that what the United States commissioner of education calls the greatest piece of educational state-manship since the time of Horace Mann has met with the highest approval from the educational experts of the country, has been adopted in Salt Lake City, in Los Angeles, in Rahway, N. J., in Muskegon, Mich., in Concord, N. H., and in twenty or more cities of the United States and is being considered by the board of education of New York, has been taken up by the bureau of municipal research established on the Russell Sage foundation and building describing the plan have been distributed among the chief cities of the United States.

Resolved, That we would deplore as a serious misfortune any breach in the continuity and development of this plan, which is placing our schools on the highest plane of organization and efficiency and is giving to Berkeley a national distinction and most progressive policies.

Resolved, That a failure to retain the superintendent of this city would be nothing short of most flagrant folly.

After the report of the sub-committee was read Director Young was asked by Cornish if he concurred in the statements therein or if he entertained different opinions. The report was based on the testimony which Professor William Morgan gave on the night before, and is embodied in the above report of the committee of fifteen.

"In the main the report is correct," said Director Young, "although I do not care to express my convictions until I read it more carefully."

Cornish then read each section of the report and asked Young to give his opinions.

He said that the finding of facts from number one to eight, inclusive, were correct in every way and his testimony strengthened the remaining sections.

POWER OF SUPERINTENDENT.
"I will say that I feel that a difference of opinion existed between the majority and minority of the board as to the scope of power that the superintendent should exercise, the majority feeling that the responsibility vested in the superintendent by the charter gives him too much power while the minority thought the charter provides that the superintendent should be given the power and held responsible for results," said Director Young.

"So acute were the objections of the majority members on this point that they have at times gone against the provisions of the charter or in other words refused to abide by the provisions of the charter. I can cite several instances."

"Some members refused to take the recommendation of the superintendent that certain heads of departments should be retained. The charter provides that the superintendent make recommendations for appointments and positions."

LEGAL POINT INVOLVED.

Rev. A. M. Smith asked Young if there was not a legal point involved as to whether the board is always compelled to abide by the nominations for positions. He replied that he was not certain.

Professor Morgan said that a case that would prove a better illustration was an instance in which the superintendent declined to nominate a teacher in one of the departments and one of the directors, then in the minority, and now in the majority, insisted upon his nomination.

Young said the majority feels that the board should assume such responsibilities as BUNKER ARBITRARY?

H. T. Cory asked Young if he found that Superintendent Bunker was arbitrary. "He is not arbitrary in the degree that he is otherwise," said Young. "In his treatment of teachers he was always fair and kind. I know of no cases where teachers were dropped without a fair hearing and they were given every benefit of the doubt. In fact it was almost impossible to get rid of a poor teacher. I think Bunker was very fair, and don't see how anyone could accuse him of being otherwise. I think he is also very tactful. I think he has managed affairs as diplomatically as could be expected."

"Do you think that he was taking himself seriously or his work seriously?" asked Cory.

"I should say that Mr. Bunker is very modest," replied Young. "He never sought praise for himself although his plan has received universal praise. He always called it the Berkeley plan and always gave the board credit for things that he really did. Instead of seeking laurels for himself he preferred to have the heads of the departments commended. He always asked the board for instruction on business affairs and in the selection of teachers. The question of morality in the schools was of deep concern to him, although the laws of the state prohibit giving religious instructions in the public schools."

After hearing what Director Young had to say the committee revised the report of the sub-committee and it was unanimously adopted. It was signed by 14 members.

What a Real Tonic Does

Thousands of men and women are ailing today, not sick in bed but without strength and ambition to do a full day's work. No one organ seems to be at fault, yet the whole system is lacking in health. They cannot sleep or get rest, are always tired out or nervous. Many have headaches, backaches and stomach trouble. All such people need the tonic help of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. The beneficial influence of this medicine reaches the whole system. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do more than relieve one or two of the symptoms, they remove the cause.

Mrs. M. V. McCallin, of No. 203 South 27th street, Lincoln, Neb., says: "I gave Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People a trial for general debility, from which I had been suffering about three years. I was thoroughly tired and worn out and had no ambition for anything. I became very weak and kept losing strength. My appetite was poor and I was nervous and had severe headaches. I needed a tonic treatment and tried several tonic remedies, but none seemed to help me until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was soon much improved in health and able to get around and do my work. I took the pills until cured and am pleased to recommend them to anyone who is run down in health."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People give strength and vigor in all cases where a tonic is needed. They are a specific for anemia or lack of blood, and chlorosis, or green sickness. After the grip, fevers and operations they give strength and hasten recovery and in old age they tone up the entire system.

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing helpful information will be sent upon request. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medical Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

When You Go East

You generally expect to include in your tour a number of the big cities. It is desirable to be met over a railroad that will include as many of these cities as possible at one interval fare; certainly it is more convenient to use one comprehensive Eastern Railroad System than several different roads.

HEBREW DIVINE SINGS TONIGHT

Rev. Max Feinsinger of Seattle to Appear at Beth Jacob Synagogue.

Because of the musical sensation which Rev. Max Feinsinger, cantor of the Congregation Bikur Cholim in Seattle, created when he appeared before the Beth Jacob Congregation at Ninth and Castro streets last April, there have been numerous requests for another appearance which he will satisfy tonight and tomorrow morning. Feinsinger is a graduate of the Berlin Conservatory of Music and prior to going to Seattle was head of a choir of forty trained voices at the Beth Abraham Congregation in New York. Caruso heard him sing several years ago and was so impressed by the first-class French and Italian interpretation that he promptly urged him to join his company. Rev. Feinsinger will sing only in Hebrew during his Oakland visit.

WOMEN WILLING TO BE JURORS

Mrs. William Allen White Says They'll Make Good Ones at That.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 16.—"Women will do jury service gladly," Mrs. William Allen White of Emporia, wife of the Kansas editor and author, said yesterday at Kansas City, Kan. She was talking to two hundred women at a luncheon given to the officers of the state organization of suffragists by the Wyandotte Equal Suffrage Association. "I believe every jury case where a woman or child is involved should have women on the jury," Mrs. White continued. "If the men insist, we will serve on all cases and we will decide them fairly and justly, too; but I believe the men should call us for service only on cases of that kind. Let every woman make a study of court procedure and the men will favor our becoming jurors when it is necessary."

BRITISHERS SEEK AMERICAN COIN

Syndicate Plans to Consolidate Score of Printing Houses in New York.

NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—Representatives of an English syndicate are in New York with a plan for buying a score of the largest printing establishments in the east into a single organization with a capital of $5,000,000.

The English capitalists hope for large profits through the application of modern business methods and the conservation of time, material and labor. The plan includes the purchase of an ink-making plant, a cloth bindery, a pamphlet bindery and an electro and photo engraving establishment, and the work of the combined printing houses.

A similar consolidation was attempted by English capital about eleven years ago, but the scheme fell through.

NEW ZEALAND BUTTER CUTS DOWN PRICES

MONTREAL, Quebec, Feb. 16.—A large shipment of New Zealand butter is being offered for sale on the markets of Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa today at a considerable reduction on the price charged for Canadian butter. The importation was made via Vancouver as an experiment, the aim being to cut down the high prices being asked for the staple owing to a shortage in production. The experiment is declared an unqualified success and regular shipments will follow.

The New Zealand article is pronounced prime by those who have tried it, although a trifle more salty than Canadian butter.

SEEK REDUCTION OF FARE TO MT. VERNON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The Mount Vernon anti-fare association organized to fight the practice of charging admission to the home and Washington, has appealed to the Interstate Commerce Commission for a reduction in the electric railway fare between Washington and Mount Vernon.

The fare is now 75 cents for the round trip, 15 miles, and forty cents of the total is charged for the stage coach and forty over three-quarters of a mile of road between Miller's station, Va., and Mount Vernon. In a brief filed with the commission the association asks that the forty-cent charge be eliminated entirely. The case will come up for hearing March 11.

Three Beauty Aids Women Should Know

(From French Beauty Monthly.)
"Any woman who wants to have lovely and beautiful hair can do so if she will use a shampooing cream with just put a cupful of cornmeal in a fruit jar and mix with it an original package of thorax; sprinkle a little on the head and brush out. It brushes out easily, taking all dirt with it and leaving the hair clear, bright, wavy and full of life. This treatment causes hair to grow.
"To avoid enlarged pores, dark and discolored blotches, wrinkles, superfluous hairs and blemishes of complexion, stop using fancy cosmetics and apply each morning only the simple lotion made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in half a pint of witch hazel. Do this and your complexion soon will be soft, smooth and altogether charming.
"Worry is a beauty destroyer. If there are children in your home, don't borrow trouble, but prepare for emergencies by keeping at hand a jar of Mother's Salt. The world never saw its equal as a healer of cuts, burns, bruises, sores, sprains and aches. It is splendid for sore throat or croup, too."

PARISIAN GOWNS CAUSE OF ROW

Mrs. Beaver's Creations Will Be Out of Style Before She Gets Them.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—Four beautiful Parisian gowns, made for her by one of the most fashionable modistes of the French capital, are causing Mrs. F. H. Beaver, wife of the well-known insurance man, all kinds of trouble.

The customs officials of the city are deeply concerned with the gowns which will have to be produced before the General Board of Appraisement at the end of this month before Mrs. Beaver can really call them her own. Whether they will still be sufficiently a la mode by that time to be worn is another momentous question. The gowns were sent to Mrs. Beaver by the Parisian dressmaker several months ago. On their arrival in New York their valuation was declared at 1400 francs, $280. When they reached this city and passed through the customs appraiser's office the same valuation was put upon them.

But in some way the special agents of this port learned that the gowns cost 2200 francs—just 800 more than Mrs. Beaver had sworn as the price of the garments.

CANNOT BE ALTERED.
The special agents at once took the matter up with the treasury department, and word came back from Washington that as the appraiser's value could not be altered once the appraisement had been made, the matter should come before the General Board of Appraisement for adjustment.

So the gowns will be produced by mutual consent of Mrs. Beaver and the special agents at next meeting of the Board of Appraisers, which will be presided over by General Appraiser E. G. Hay on the 27th of this month.

In the meantime both Beaver and his wife have made several trips to the Custom House and held lengthy conferences with both Special Agent W. H. Tidwell and Special Deputy Collector William E. Hamilton. It is said Beaver admitted the gowns originally cost 2200 francs, but when asked by the special agents to produce the bill he said in some way it had been destroyed.

The Beavers live at 2525 Webster street. Mrs. Beaver is prominent in society and her husband is a popular member of many of the smart clubs of the city.

WEALTHY CHINESE TAKES WHITE WIFE

Wong Ping Weds the Second American Woman; Has a Quarrel With Uncle.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Wong Ping, a wealthy Chinese merchant with stores in New York, San Francisco and Norfolk, Va., and Miss Myrtle Arthur, 21 years old, of Norfolk, Va., have been married here after having a license refused them in three Virginia cities, Norfolk, Richmond and Newport News.

Ping, who was born in San Francisco, has married two American women. His first wife died several years ago. Mr. Ping will go to her parents in rural North Carolina to stay until her husband settles a quarrel with an uncle who was bent on sending him to the Orient for a second wife.

MILITIA MAY BE ORDERED HOME

Officials of Lawrence Believe Police Will Be Able to Maintain Peace.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Feb. 16.—Efforts will be made by city officials to police the city with local officials, beginning tonight, thus relieving the state militia of that work. Practically all the policing of the city has been done by the militia for a month, but as there has been no rioting for many days, it is believed the city force can now maintain order. More operatives have returned to work during the last twenty-four hours than at any time since the strike began a month ago.

CHANGES MADE IN OFFICE OF STATE ENGINEER

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 16.—Herbert A. French, formerly of Capitol Superintendent Radcliffe's office, and Assistant Engineer J. L. Tibbitts of Redding, today have positions in the state engineer's department under the new state engineer, Wilbur F. McClure, the former as purchasing agent, succeeding G. L. Nichols, and the latter as filing clerk, succeeding Earle Freeman.

What is considered a dismissal for J. J. McCarthy, blue-print pressman, was his notice today from the state engineer to take his two weeks' vacation grant, hint by Ellery McCarthy was the manager for Ellery's campaign for Governor two years ago.

LAWYER SUES WIFE FOR LOS ANGELES HOME

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—A. K. Wheeler, a San Francisco attorney, filed two suits here yesterday against his wife, Alice Catherine Wheeler. In the first suit he seeks to recover property at 8944 Builong avenue, which, he says, was purchased with his money and conveyed to his wife without consideration in the second suit. Wheeler seeks possession of an automobile, which, he alleges, his wife shipped out of San Francisco without his consent. Wheeler appears as his own attorney in both actions.

FIFTH VICTIM DIES.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 16.—Ralph Schlegel, 16 years old, died here last night of injuries received in a wreck on the Kansas City Western electric line two months ago. He is the fifth victim of the wreck to die.

FROM SUNSHINE LAND

Cottolene is a vegetable product—without an ounce of hog fat in it. It is made from the choicest cotton oil, extracted from the seed picked on the fields of the Sunny South. It is a product of Nature, and makes wholesome, digestible, healthful food.

Cottolene is made in a cleanly manner—from Cottonfield to Kitchen human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made. It is the one high-grade, absolutely pure and perfect cooking fat—and far preferable from a health and economic standpoint to butter, lard or any other fat.

Cottolene is more economical than butter or lard because it goes one-third farther.

FINNY FOREIGNER IS CAUGHT IN BAY

West Oakland Merchant Lands Fish That Proves a Stranger.

A fish of foreign species to these waters was "hooked" off Long Wharf Wednesday afternoon by John Dooley, a well-known merchant of West Oakland. The fish is of a kind never before seen in these parts. Dooley, who has been a devout disciple of Isak Walton for the past forty years, declared that he had never seen a fish of its kind during all his time. A number of sailors of a neighboring vessel and a large number of longshoremen gathered about the scene, but none could give out to what clan of the finny tribe the captured fish belonged.

The fish was about two and one-half feet in length and was of a greenish color. Several yellowish spots were in evidence on its otherwise silvery scales. The fish was hooked by Dooley while he was out looking over the captured trophy for considerable time and not being able to find anybody who could give out what kind of a fish Dooley had caught, a captain of a vessel lying nearby was called into conference. The captain looked at the fish over thoughtfully, but declared that he had no idea what tribe the fish belonged to.

WANTED AT MUSEUM.

A suggestion was made that Dooley take the fish up to the local museum and then find out to what tribe it belonged. This Dooley refused to do, declaring that he was going to ship it up north, where he had a friend interested in the creature of the "rolling deep." No reasonable explanation as to how the fish happened to get into the inner harbor can be given, but it is thought that the recent storms forced it to run into port for shelter. The capture of this fish has set the local front and this morning several men were seen in the waters of the harbor, but before have I ever seen such a specimen of fish.

SOCIETY WOMAN SUE BY A MAIL CARRIER

EVANSTON, Ill., Feb. 16.—Five society women here have been made defendants in a suit for damages of $25,000 for alleged conspiracy, filed in the Superior Court by Thomas A. Ross, a former mail carrier. Ross was discharged by the postoffice department last December on charges made by the women, and he declares they conspired to deprive him of his position.

SEALED THEIR MOUTHS.

URBANA, Feb. 16.—In the investigation of reports of cruelty practiced in the local orphan's home, a Methodist institution, it was brought out that one method used in keeping children quiet was to paste their mouths.

Woman Finally Recovers From Nervous Breakdown

Impoverished nerves destroy many people before their time. Often before a sufferer realizes what the trouble is, he is on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. It is of the utmost importance to keep your nervous system in good condition, as the nerves are the source of all bodily power. Mrs. Anna Kouns, Mechanic St., Pueblo, Colo., says: "For many years I suffered from nervous prostration; I was unable to do any house work and doctors failed to help me. Remedies I tried from druggists did not do me a particle of good. A neighbor told my husband about and he procured a bottle. After the first few doses I showed a marked improvement and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I have been perfectly well for years and cannot praise Dr. Miles' Nervine too highly."

If you are troubled with loss of appetite, poor digestion, weakness, inability to sleep; if you are in a general run down condition and unable to bear your part of the daily grind of life, you need something to strengthen your nerves. You may not realize what the matter with you, but that is no reason why you should delay treatment.

Dr. Miles' Nervine

Has proven its value in nervous disorders for thirty years, and merits a trial, no matter how many other remedies have failed to help you. Hold by all druggists. If first bottle fails to benefit your money is returned. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

Residents in Linda Park and Melrose District Petition
City Council.

Inadequate fire protection in Linda Park and Melrose station tracts was the subject of petitions from the residents of the district to the city council, and the city council, in turn, requested that Commissioner E. C. Turner and Fire Chief N. A. Bull, a resolution was passed directing the Peoples Water Company to install six-inch mains in this tract that fire hydrants might be placed. Turnouts for fire trucks would be placed and the residents would be forced to put in the mains if any unwillingness was shown, as fire protection appeared to be absolutely essential. The action was taken on the basis of the following recommendation from Fire Chief N. A. Bull:

"I beg leave to report on the petition of the South Melrose Improvement Club for a six-inch water main and five hydrants in the Linda park and Melrose

"I beg leave to report on the petition of the South Melrose Improvement Club for a six-inch water main and five hydrants in the Linda park and Melrose station tracks, which was referred to as the "old" tracks. The Wisconsin Cattle Company has a two-inch main in said tract at the present time, and on it are located four hydrants which were installed before this territory was annexed to the city. If the city of Racine were to install a six-inch main in said tract, it can locate two or more hydrants in said tract when the pipe is laid."

EXCITED DEPOSITORS STORM BANK DOORS

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—Hundreds of excited depositors, mostly foreigners, stormed the private bank of Adolph Mandel in Rivington street today, demanding their money. Mandel said he had ample funds to meet all demands and was at a loss to explain the run. Nearly $50,000 was drawn out today. One theory is that yesterday's taxicab robbery, in which $25,000 of a banker's cash was stolen, was the cause of the run. The police believe that thieves circulated false rumors in order to pick pockets while depositors were in line.
